StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 1

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox NFL Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 1

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

NFL GAME BREAKDOWNS: WEEK 1

DALLAS COWBOYS   VS   NEW YORK GIANTS (-4)

				TEAM OFFENSE						TEAM DEFENSE

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Super Bowl champions are back with plenty of offensive firepower between QB Eli Manning, WR Victor Cruz, a healthy WR Hakeem Nicks and rookie RB David Wilson joining RB Ahmad Bradshaw in the backfield. They're once again thin in the secondary with starting CB Terrell Thomas going down for the year again, but they have the dominating pass rush to make up for it. After being torched by Manning and Co. a year ago, the Cowboys added free agent CB Brandon Carr and first-round pick CB Morris Claiborne to their weak secondary. Of course, this will likely come down to Tony Romo limiting mistakes.

| STATFOX FORECASTER: | DALLAS .... 21 |
| | NY GIANTS .... 26 |

KEY BETTING TREND:
NY GIANTS are 26-12 OVER in the first two weeks of the season since 1992.

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
NY GIANTS is 7-4 ATS (7-4 SU) vs. DALLAS (3-2 ATS, 3-2 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
Tom Coughlin is 17-6 ATS in games played on turf as coach of NY GIANTS.
Tom Coughlin is 36-20 ATS in the first half of the season as coach of NY GIANTS.
Tom Coughlin is 78-58 ATS in all lined games as coach of NY GIANTS.
DALLAS is 6-17 ATS against conference opponents since the start of the 2010 season.
DALLAS was 0-6 ATS versus division opponents last season.
DALLAS is 6-0 under the 1H total as road underdog of 7 points or less since the start of the 2010 season.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS   VS   CHICAGO BEARS (-9½)

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Colts start the Andrew Luck era with optimism after a strong preseason. But even if their offense is clicking, their defense is a huge question mark. They're switching to a 3-4 defense with 4-3 personnel (and they weren't a very good defense as a 4-3). The Bears were 7-3 SU last year before Jay Cutler and Matt Forte got injured, and their offense has improved with the acquisition of old Cutler favorite WR Brandon Marshall. Their bend-don't-break Cover-2 defense should be solid again, especially with DE Julius Peppers anchoring the pass rush.

| STATFOX FORECASTER: | INDIANAPOLIS .... 15 |
| | CHICAGO .... 23 |

BETTING SYSTEM:
Any team where the total is between 42.5 and 49 points - good offense from last season - averaged 5.4 or more yards/play, in non-conference games. (35-11 Under) Play = Under the total

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
CHICAGO is 1-0 ATS (1-0 SU) vs. INDIANAPOLIS (0-0 ATS, 0-0 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
CHICAGO is 77-54 OVER as a favorite since 1992.
CHICAGO is 63-39 OVER as a home favorite since 1992.
CHICAGO is 9-1 over the 1H total as a home favorite since the start of the 2010 season.
INDIANAPOLIS is 57-38 OVER as a road underdog since 1992.
INDIANAPOLIS is 13-4 OVER as a road underdog of 7.5 to 10 points since 1992.
INDIANAPOLIS is 100-70 OVER in road lined games since 1992.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES (-7)   VS   CLEVELAND BROWNS

				TEAM OFFENSE						TEAM DEFENSE

CLEVELAND	-5.6	20	14	17	26-96 (3.7)	36-20-193 (5.4)	62-289 (4.7)	0-1	19	19	33-147 (4.4)	29-17-185 (6.3)	62-332 (5.4)	1-1	+1

GAME BREAKDOWN: After ending the season with four-straight win-and-covers, the Eagles are a popular pick to bounce-back from a disappointing 2011 campaign. WR DeSean Jackson is finally happy with his contract and WR Jeremy Maclin is over last year's cancer scare, so QB Michael Vick's unit should again be explosive (after a couple preseason scares, Vick enters the season healthy). Philly's pass rush is elite and they're hoping LB DeMeco Ryans will sure up a shaky LB unit. Cleveland is relying on rookie QB Brandon Weeden to perform right away. RB Trent Richardson is likely to be limited with knee problems.

| STATFOX FORECASTER: | PHILADELPHIA .... 22 |
| | CLEVELAND .... 15 |

BETTING SYSTEM:
Any team where the total is between 35.5 and 42 points - good offensive team from last season - scored 24 or more points/game. (26-5 Over) Play = Over the total

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
CLEVELAND is 0-1 ATS (0-1 SU) vs. PHILADELPHIA (0-0 ATS, 0-0 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
CLEVELAND is 1-11 ATS at home where total is between 35.5 and 42 points since start of 2010 season.
CLEVELAND was 11-2 UNDER in games played on a grass field over last season.
CLEVELAND is 40-23 UNDER in non-conference games since 1992.

Andy Reid is 68-43 ATS in road lined games as coach of PHILADELPHIA.
Andy Reid is 46-25 ATS away in games played on a grass field as coach of PHILADELPHIA.

BUFFALO BILLS | vs | NEW YORK JETS (-3)

• (457) BUFFALO (SU: 6-10, ATS: 6-9) at (458) NY JETS (SU: 8-8, ATS: 6-9)

				TEAM OFFENSE						TEAM DEFENSE

NY JETS	+0.9	21	24	19	28-106 (3.8)	34-19-206 (6.0)	62-312 (5.0)	1-1	23	17	28-111 (3.9)	32-17-201 (6.3)	60-312 (5.2)	1-1	-3

GAME BREAKDOWN: Buffalo spent big to improve their weak front seven, adding free agent DEs Mario Williams and Mark Anderson to go along with DT Kyle Williams and emerging star DT Marcell Dareus. Chan Gailey's smoke-and-mirrors offense will likely be able to move the ball sporadically. The Jets struggled to stop the run last year and are still looking for a pass rush, but the Darrelle Revis factor gives them a huge edge again. The offense will return to "ground-and-pound" under new OC Tony Sporano, but they looked awful in the preseason (one touchdown). They may have some Tim Tebow tricks up their sleeve.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	BUFFALO	20
	NY JETS	27

BETTING SYSTEM:
Any team against the total - team with a poor scoring defense last season - allowed 24 or more points/ game, versus division opponents. (59-25 Under) Play = Under the total

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
NY JETS is 5-5 ATS (7-3 SU) vs. BUFFALO (1-4 ATS, 3-2 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
NY JETS are 5-15 ATS at home in the first two weeks of the season since 1992.
NY JETS are 24-11 OVER in all lined games since the start of the 2010 season.
Rex Ryan is 17-6 OVER in games where the line is +3 to -3 as coach of NY JETS.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Redskins ushed in the RG3 era with dual threat rookie Robert Griffin III looking to spark a listless offense. He'll have his hands full against an aggressive Saints defense. The 'Skins are also still looking for answers on the offensive line and the secondary. Though Sean Payton is suspended for the season, the Saints should be fine on offense with Drew Brees running the show. They added numerous new LBs over the offseason, but new starters Curtis Lofton and David Hawthorne are working their way back from preseason injuries. Their run defense is once again a question mark.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	WASHINGTON	18

BETTING SYSTEM:
NEW ORLEANS is 9-0 ATS as a home favorite over the L2 seasons.

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:

WASHINGTON is 139-104 UNDER against conference opponents since 1992.

statfox SUPER SITUATIONS

Situational analysis uncovers conditions and patterns where teams have consistently outperformed or underperformed their normal levels. These systems are not team specific—the principle is that teams fall into patterns regardless of personnel (i.e. good passing teams, teams seeking revenge, cold teams on a losing streak, etc.).

• Play On - Underdogs or pick (TENNESSEE) - first 2 weeks of the year, after closing out last season strong with 2 or more straight wins.

• The situation's record is 26-6 over the last 10 seasons (81.2%, +19.4 units).

• Play Over - Any team where the total is between 35.5 and 42 points (PHILADELPHIA) - good offensive team from last season - scored 24 or more points/game.

• The situation's record is 26-5 over the last 5 seasons (83.9%, +20.5 units).

RATING = ✳ ✳ ✳

• Play Under - Any team where the total is between 42.5 and 49 points (GREEN BAY, SAN FRANCISCO, NEW ENGLAND, TENNESSEE) - in a game involving two teams that had winning records last season.

NFL GAME BREAKDOWNS: WEEK 1

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (-7) | VS | TENNESSEE TITANS

• (461) NEW ENGLAND (SU: 15-4, ATS: 10-8) at (462) TENNESSEE (SU: 9-7, ATS: 6-9)

				TEAM OFFENSE						TEAM DEFENSE

GAME BREAKDOWN: New England's offense gets richer, with deep threat WR Brandon Lloyd, Tom Brady's best outside weapon since Randy Moss' prime, joining star TEs Rob Gronkowski and Aaron Hernandez and dominant slot WR Wes Welker. Their offensive line is dealing with some injuries. Their young defense is a year older and wiser and should be somewhat improved. The Titans need RB Chris Johnson to find his old form, as second-year QB Jake Locker is a flawed passer right now. Their defense will have its hands full against Brady and Company, especially with a toothless pass rush.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Jaguars will likely be without the centerpiece of their offense, hold out RB Maurice Jones-Drew. RB Rashad Jennings will carry a heavy load, as conservative new head coach Mike Mularkey looks to take pressure off overwhelmed QB Blaine Gabbert. All-Pro RB Adrian Peterson is a question mark coming off two torn knee ligaments, meaning workmanlike back-up Toby Gerhart will likely see an increased workload. QB Christian Ponder had an up-and-down rookie season, developing a strong rapport with dynamic WR Percy Harvin. DE Jared Allen will once again have to carry a defense full of question marks.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Dolphins will turn the offense over to raw rookie QB Ryan Tannehill, executing new head coach Joe Philbin's West Coast offense. RB Reggie Bush will have to prove last year's success was no fluke, as Miami has one of the NFL's weakest receiving corps. Miami finished strong last year, going 8-1-1 ATS over their last 10. Houston may be the best running team in the NFL, and the healthy returns of QB Matt Schaub and WR Andre Johnson make their offense that much more potent. The Texans D went from horrid in 2010 to one of the league's best in 2011 under defensive coordinator Wade Phillips.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Rams hope new head coach Jeff Fisher can right the ship after a terrible 2011. QB Sam Bradford is surrounded with inexperienced weapons and has gotten increasingly skittish behind a weak o-line. DEs Chris Long and Robert Quinn anchor a promising defensive front four, which will have to get to Matthew Stafford for the Rams to have any hope. The Lions' pass-happy offense was unstoppable at times last season, as WR Calvin Johnson beat every coverage thrown at him. Detroit's defense was inconsistent last year, but their front four has a chance to give the Rams' struggling o-line fits.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Falcons have vowed to open up their offense, and while Matt Ryan doesn't have an exceptional arm, Roddy White and Julio Jones may be the NFL's top WR duo. Atlanta's defense will have to make up for the loss of their leader MLB Curtis Lofton. The Chiefs offense hopes to bounce back from a down year with QB Matt Cassel and RB Jamaal Charles healthy again, and RB Peyton Hillis joining the backfield. GAME BREAKDOWN: The 49ers' elite defense will have go head-to-head with Green Bay's explosive offense. The Niners' run defense is elite, but their secondary was susceptible at times and could be exploited by Aaron Rodgers and Company. San Francisco's offense could also be a bit more aggressive this season, as they added big-play weapons in WRs Randy Moss and Mario Manningham and rookie RB LaMichael James. Green Bay has an aggressive secondary that forces tons of turnovers, but also gives up a plethora of big plays because of the gambles they take.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Carolina swept the Bucs, SU and ATS, last year. QB Cam Newton is poised to improve as a passer and should have WR Steve Smith (foot infection) 100% healthy. And the Panthers' leaky run defense will get a boost from the arrival of rookie LB Luke Kuechly and return of LB Jon Beason. The Bucs lost their last ten games (1-9 ATS) and hope new head coach Greg Schiano's staff can get QB Josh Freeman back on track. The addition of deep threat WR Vincent Jackson should help, as will a run-first attack led by first-rounder Doug Martin. Tampa's defense was pitiful, but has a few young talents who should step up this year.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Seahawks offense begins and ends with RB Marshawn Lynch, as question marks linger throughout a passing game led by undersized rookie QB Russell Wilson. Seattle's defense is shaping up to be one of the NFC's best, with plenty of speed to go with their strong run defense. The Cardinals will go with John Skelton under center. He's shaky, but is willing to take shots downfield and let WR Larry Fitzgerald make plays. DLs Calais Campbell and Darnell Dockett anchor a defense that improved greatly last season. Their feeble pass rush may not be an issue against the run-first Seahawks.

GAME BREAKDOWN: In a rematch of Denver's Wild Card victory a year ago, the Broncos offense will look completely different with Peyton Manning under center. There are questions surrounding Manning though, like his arm strength after missing last year following multiple neck surgeries and Denver's ability to keep up with his audibles and adjustments. The Pittsburgh defense looked a half step slow late last year and will be without FS Ryan Clark (sickle cell traits). OLB James Harrison is coming off a knee scope. Offensively, they have a new play-caller in Todd Haley and are just getting holdout WR Mike Wallace into the fold.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Bengals went 9-0 SU against non-playoff teams last year, and 0-8 versus the league's best. WR A.J. Green is an exceptional talent and QB Andy Dalton was better than expected as rookie. Dalton threw three INTs in Baltimore last year but nearly led a late comeback in their 31-24 loss. Ravens QB Joe Flacco will get to run a more aggressive, uptempo offense. WR Torrey Smith may emerge as the game-breaking deep threat they've always lacked, while RB Ray Rice's versatility keeps drives moving. OLB Terrell Suggs (Achilles) will be missed though, as the Ravens will struggle to replace his pass-rushing prowess.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The perennially underachieving Chargers haven't covered a Week 1 spread since 2007. QB Philip Rivers suffered through a mistake-laden 2011, lost top WR Vincent Jackson, and will be without blindside pass protector Jared Gaither (back). Raiders QB Carson Palmer could be better with a full preseason in Oakland, but his declining arm strength and poor decision-making often spell disaster in the turnover category. The Raiders D will improve with DE Matt Shaughnessy returning healthy, but their porous secondary could leave them open to big plays from San Diego wideouts Robert Meachem and Malcom Floyd.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave is known to step out and pick games that are not on the national radar, and he nailed the Texas San Antonio's debut in FBS this past Saturday, taking the Roadrunners at +6.5 versus South Alabama, and enjoying the outright 33-31 win for the underdog.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. He nailed two of his three college football ATS Best Bets with underdogs Boise State and Vanderbilt both covering in nationally televised games. Gary barely missed Auburn, which squandered a fourth-quarter lead against Clemson.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox and Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a two-year college football run in which his Best Bets success rate was 56%. Scott went 2-for-2 in his ATS Best Bets on Saturday, nailing Ohio's outright win as a six-point underdog at Penn State and Northwestern's win at Syracuse in a game that was at pick 'em for our Friday update before closing with the Orange as a slight favorite. Scott ended up 2-1 on totals, nailing the over in the Oregon game and the under in the Florida game.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. Brian was a perfect 2-for-2 Saturday in college football ATS Best Bets, as both underdogs Ohio and Miami Florida covered comfortably against Penn State and Boston College, respectively.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. Forecaster started the 2012 college season on fire, going 12-3 ATS (80%).

StatFox College Football Power Rating Lines - Week 2

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox College Football Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 2

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

ABBREVIATIONS:
OL - Opening Line
OF - StatFox Outplay Factor Rating - adjusted for home field advantage.
OFL - Calculated Outplay Factor Line

CINCINNATI	THIS IS CINCINNATI'S FIRST GAME OF THE 2012 SEASON

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Panthers lost to an FCS program for the first time in school history Saturday, as Youngstown State never trailed in a 31-17 road win. Pittsburgh has dropped three of the past four meetings with Cincinnati, but has a 5-2 ATS mark in the series in Big East play. Cincy finished 10-3 last season, but returns just four offensive starters. QB Munchie Legaux was second on the depth chart in 2011, but he's the starter now after leading his team to wins in its final two conference games, throwing for 386 yards and 5 TD.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Pittsburgh .... 19 Cincinnati 27	• PITTSBURGH is 11-3 ATS against conference opponents over the last 3 seasons. • CINCINNATI is 7-3 ATS the last 10 times it was favored. • PITTSBURGH is 17-32 ATS off a home loss since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: After Hurricane Isaac prevented Oregon State from facing Nicholls State last week, the Beavers have a much tougher season opener when they face Wisconsin. The Badgers did not look sharp in a 26-21 win over 32.5-point underdog Northern Iowa, which was driving for the go-ahead score with 2:45 left to play. Badgers RB Montee Ball needed 32 carries to get his 120 yards (3.8 YPC). GAME BREAKDOWN: LSU seeks a 19th straight home win when it hosts Washington on Saturday. When these schools last played in 2009, it was closer than the Tigers had hoped, as they won 31-23, but failed to cover the 18½-point spread. Last week, Keith Price threw for 222 yards, but his Huskies scored just seven points in the final three quarters of their 21-12 win over San Diego State. The Tigers outrushed North Texas 316-76 in a 41-14 blowout win, that saw Zach Mettenberger go 19-for-26 for 192 yards, 1 TD and 1 INT in his first LSU start.

GAME BREAKDOWN: These two big-name schools will meet for the first time since 1994, a 49-21 Nebraska win over UCLA. The big story here is Huskers star RB Rex Burkhead who sprained his MCL in the 49-20 win over Southern Miss and will likely sit this game out. However, if Taylor Martinez plays like he did last week (26-of-34, 354 yds, 5 TD), Nebraska's offense will be OK. The Cowboys lost both QB Brandon Weeden and WR Justin Blackmon to the NFL, but still piled up 682 yards and nine rushing TD in the win. Wildcats star QB Kain Colter was unable to play in the final drive because of a shoulder injury, but he expects to start Saturday.
