StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 17

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox NFL Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 17

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Falcons will be taking it easy after clinching the No. 1 seed in the NFC, while the Bucs will be looking to save some face as they embarrass themselves down the stretch for a second straight season. Tampa has certainly been trying to win games, but they've dropped five in a row SU (0-4-1 ATS) and have been outscored 69-13 over the past two games. When Atlanta was the NFC's No. 1 seed in 2010 they needed to win their last game of the season to clinch the spot (beating the last-place Panthers 31-10). They beat Tampa to start the Bucs' current losing streak, 24-23 at Tampa.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	TAMPA BAY	22
	ATLANTA	28

TAMPA is 1-9 ATS versus good off. teams - averaging 350+ YPG in 2nd half of season over L2 seasons.

NEW YORK JETS | VS | BUFFALO BILLS (-3½)

GAME BREAKDOWN: Two of the NFL's most disappointing teams will being their respective seasons to a merciful end. The Jets turned the offense over to back-up QB Greg McElroy last week, and the offense was as stagnant as ever. They had just 225 yards of offense, 42 of them coming on a gadget play pass by WR Jeremy Kerley. The Bills have dropped seven of nine SU (3-6 ATS) and haven't topped 20 points just once in their last six games. They've lost six in a row SU to the Jets (1-5 ATS), including a 48-28 loss in this year's opener.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	NY JETS	19
	BUFFALO	23

BETTING SYSTEM:
Home teams where the total is 35.5-42 points - after having lost 4 of last 5 games, a bad team, winning 25% to 40% of their games, in the second half of the season. (43-15 Under) Play = Under the total

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
BUFFALO is 5-6 ATS (3-8 SU) vs. NY JETS (1-4 ATS, 1-4 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
BUFFALO is 17-5 ATS at home after a game with a turnover margin of -3 or worse since 1992.
BUFFALO is 50-31 OVER as a favorite of 3.5 to 9.5 points since 1992.
BUFFALO is 6-0 OVER off a loss by 10 points+ to a division rival over L3 seasons.
NY JETS are 0-6 ATS off 1+ straight overs this season.
NY JETS are 10-26 ATS versus good rushing teams - averaging >=4.5 rushing yards/carry since 1992.
NY JETS are 16-4 OVER away when playing with 6 or less days rest over L3 seasons.

BALTIMORE RAVENS (-3) | VS | CINCINNATI BENGALS

- (305) BALTIMORE (SU: 10-5, ATS: 6-8) at (306) CINCINNATI (SU: 9-6, ATS: 8-6)

	TEAM OFFENSE								TEAM DEFENSE
	PDIF	SS	PPG	FD	RUSHING	PASSING	TOTAL	F-I	PPG	FD	RUSHING	PASSING	TOTAL	F-I	TOD
BALTIMORE	+4.0	20	25	19	27-113 (4.3)	35-21-240 (6.8)	62-353 (5.7)	0-1	21	21	31-127 (4.1)	35-21-234 (6.6)	66-361 (5.5)	1-1	+10
CINCINNATI	+4.3	18	25	19	27-113 (4.2)	34-21-229 (6.7)	61-342 (5.6)	1-1	20	19	25-101 (4.0)	35-22-216 (6.2)	60-317 (5.3)	1-1	+3

GAME BREAKDOWN: This game will likely be meaningless for both teams. The Bengals are locked in as the AFC's No. 6 seed, while the Ravens would need New England to lose at home to the Dolphins to move from No. 4 to No. 3. So in all likelihood, both teams will be shortening the playbook and resting a lot of players. The Ravens have beaten the Bengals four in a row SU (2-1-1 ATS), including a 44-13 blowout in Baltimore to open the season.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	BALTIMORE	19
	CINCINNATI	23

BETTING SYSTEM:
Any team - off an upset win as a home underdog, with a winning record on the season. (77-140 ATS) Play = CINCINNATI against the spread

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
CINCINNATI is 6-4 ATS (5-6 SU) vs. BALTIMORE (3-2 ATS, 3-2 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
CINCINNATI is 7-0 ATS after covering the spread in 3 out of their last 4 games over L3 seasons.
CINCINNATI is 7-20 ATS at home revenging a loss where opponent scored 28+ points since 1992.
CINCINNATI is 7-0 UNDER after 1+ consecutive wins against the spread this season.
BALTIMORE is 1-8 ATS vs. poor kickoff coverage teams, allowing >= 24 yards per return over L2 seasons.
BALTIMORE is 55-34 UNDER off a home win since 1992.
BALTIMORE is 40-24 UNDER after a win by 14+ points since 1992.

DALLAS COWBOYS vs WASHINGTON REDSKINS (-3½)

- (315) DALLAS (SU: 8-7, ATS: 6-9) at (316) WASHINGTON (SU: 9-6, ATS: 10-5)

	TEAM OFFENSE								TEAM DEFENSE

GAME BREAKDOWN: This game will decide the NFC East. These teams met in Dallas on Thanksgiving Day, and the Redskins absolutely dominated Dallas. The final score was 38-31, but the Cowboys had no answers for Robert Griffin III and the game was not as close as that score would suggest. Getting on the road could be good for the Cowboys though. They're 4-3 SU and 5-2 ATS away from home this season. Washington has won three in a row at home, SU and ATS. Griffin didn't quite seem 100% recovered from his knee injury last year, as he threw for 198 and ran for four in a win at Philadelphia.

STATFOX FORECASTER:
DALLAS	24
WASHINGTON	30

BETTING SYSTEM:
Road teams against the total - off an upset loss as a favorite, with a winning record on the season. (54-23 Over) Play = Over the total

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:
WASHINGTON is 9-2 ATS (4-7 SU) vs. DALLAS (3-2 ATS, 2-3 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
WASHINGTON is 15-2 ATS vs. excellent pass teams averaging 260+ pass YPG after 8+ games since 1992.
WASHINGTON is 34-13 ATS versus poor rush teams - averaging <=90 rushing yards/game since 1992.
WASHINGTON is 19-4 ATS vs. poor rush teams - averaging <=90 rush YPG in 2nd half of season since 1992.
DALLAS is 1-12 ATS away vs. poor def. teams - allowing 350+ YPG in 2nd half of season since 1992.
DALLAS is 5-17 ATS against conference opponents over L2 seasons.
DALLAS is 12-2 OVER after having won 2 out of their last 3 games over L3 seasons.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Bears need to win and get some help to make the postseason. They've beaten the Lions SU in eight of their last nine meetings (4-4-1 ATS) including a 13-7 win at home in which they completely smothered the Detroit offense. The Lions have lost seven in a row SU and six of seven ATS, and they've struggled even more than usual lately. With their receiving corps ravaged by injuries, they've managed just 26 offensive points the past two weeks. The Bears snapped a three-game losing streak of their own with a win at Arizona last week. They're 4-3 SU and ATS on the road.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Titans and Jaguars will play out the string as both teams try to get a face-saving win. The Jaguars will be motivated by a tryout-type atmosphere amidst reports that GM Gene Smith will be let go. They were game in their home finale last week, coming within 12 yards of upsetting the Patriots. They've covered in their past four meetings with the Titans, including a 24-19 win at home in Week 12. The Titans were humiliated at Green Bay last week, losing 55-7. They've dropped four of five, SU and ATS.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Texans are actually the team that has something to play for in this one. Houston still has to win to clinch the No. 1 seed in the AFC, while the Colts are locked into the No. 5 seed. Houston is 6-1 SU and 4-3 ATS on the road this season. These teams just met in Houston in Week 15, with the Texans jumping out early and hanging on for a 29-17 win. They outgained the Colts 417-272 in the game. RB Arian Foster had 165 rushing yards in that game, but missed most of last week's loss to Minnesota because of an irregular heartbeat. He reportedly had been cleared medically to re-enter that game.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Packers can clinch a first round playoff bye with a win, while the Vikings can clinch a postseason birth with a victory. The Packers have trounbed the Vikings of late, beating them five in a row SU (4-1 ATS). That included a 23-14 victory at Minnesota earlier this month at Green Bay, a game in which the Packers were desperately looking for a workaround with their patchwork offensive line. Green Bay has also won all three of their games since then, including last week's 55-7 blowout of Tennessee. The Vikings' best hope is once again Adrian Peterson, who had 210 yards in the Week 13 loss to the Packers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Patriots have never been a team to give their stars rest before the playoffs, but this year they're still in need of a win if they're to have a shot at a first-round bye. The Patriots have beaten Miami at home with Tom Brady under center five times in a row SU, but they are just 2-3 ATS in those games. The teams played a close on last year on Christmas Eve, with the Pats winning 27-24. And they played a one possession game in Miami in Week 13, with New England winnings 23-16 (an ATS push).

GAME BREAKDOWN: Two teams who thought they would be battling for the NFC South crown will instead be playing a meaningless finale. The Saints have built up a little bit of steam since a disastrous three-game losing streak, blowing away the Bucs at home and upending the Cowboys in overtime at Dallas. Carolina is also building some momentum heading into the offseason, riding a three-game winning streak into this one. Their much maligned defense has allowed just 13 points over the past two weeks. When the teams met in Carolina back in Week 2, the Panthers held on for a 35-27 shootout win.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Giants have to win to keep their slim playoff hopes alive. Big Blue has stumbled to a disastrous finish, losing back-to-back road games (at Atlanta and Baltimore) and getting outscored 67-14 in the losses. Getting back home should bode well for them, as they're 5-2 SU (though just 3-4 ATS) at home. With rookie QB Nick Foles hurt, the Eagles will turn back to Michael Vick under center. The Eagles have a five game, SU and ATS, road winning streak against the Giants. In Philly in Week 4, Vick led a late FG drive to give the Eagles a 19-17 win over the Giants, who missed a 54-yard FG in the final seconds.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Now out of playoff contention, Pittsburgh has had issues on the offensive side of the ball all year under first-year OC Todd Haley. It's really come back to bite them the past three weeks. Since QB Ben Roethlisberger returned to the lineup, the Steelers have scored just 58 points and turned it over seven times, including four Roethlisberger INTs. The Browns are also playing out the string and could be without RB Trent Richardson (ankle) and QB Brandon Weeden (shoulder). They beat the Steelers in Week 12, a game in which Charlie Batch started for Pittsburgh and the team committed eight turnovers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Raiders may have finally turned a corner offensively. They've held their last two opponents, Carolina and Kansas City, to a total of 17 points. And they held Peyton Manning and the Broncos to a respectable 26 points in the previous game. They could be without QB Carson Palmer (ribs). The Chargers have been up and down all season, but have managed to win two of their last three. However, they're just 2-5, SU and ATS, at home this season. These teams played a Monday night season opener, in which the Raiders imploded in a 22-14 home loss. But Oakland has won their last two trips to San Diego SU.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The 49ers will try to play themselves back into a first-round playoff bye. After a huge win in New England two weeks ago, they had a total dud in getting blown out at Seattle last week. But they crushed the Cardinals at Arizona earlier this season, 24-3, and have beaten the Cards at home, SU and ATS, three straight times. Arizona is looking for some answers, as they have been atrocious offensively. The Cards have topped 20 points just once in their last 11 games, and that outburst against Detroit came courtesy of four Lions turnovers. They could give the start to veteran back-up QB Brian Hoyer.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Seahawks are playing for playoff seeding as they host the Rams in their regular season finale. Seattle seems to be peaking at the right time, as they've outscored opponents 150-30 over their last three games. That includes last week's 42-13 blowout of rival San Francisco. The Seahawks are 7-0 SU and ATS at home this season. The Rams upset the Seahawks at home back in September, 19-13, but have still lost three of four, SU and ATS, to Seattle. Last December, on the road, the Seahawks beat the Rams 30-13.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Broncos can secure a first-round playoff bye, and could still get the AFC's top seed with some help. The Chiefs actually played them tough at Kansas City in Week 12. The Broncos scored a season-low 17 points in that game, a 17-9 SU victory but ATS loss. However, the Broncos would have covered had kicker Matt Prater converted on at least one of his two missed field goals (33 and 47 yards). The Broncos have gone 8-2 ATS during their 10-game SU winning streak. Since upsetting the Panthers four games ago, the Chiefs have dropped three in a row, SU and ATS, while scoring a total of 20 points.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave has been incredible since Thanksgiving, going 26-11 ATS (70%) in all his picks, upping his season mark to 59% ATS (132-92-5) for the entire season. Dave is 8-4 ATS in Best Bets during this run, and is now 59% ATS (46-32) in Best Bets for the season.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his “rookie” season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Gary has been red-hot in his picks lately, going 22-15 ATS (60%) since Thanksgiving. Gary’s season college Best Bets mark is also strong, as a 14-12-1 ATS run (54%) in this same timeframe has boosted his season Best Bets to 55% ATS (23-21-1).

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox and Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a two-year college football run in which his Best Bets success rate was 56%. Scott has heated up down the stretch, going 25-12 ATS (68%) in his overall college football picks since Thanksgiving. This includes a 5-1 ATS mark in bowl season. He’s also 7-3 ATS (70%) in his Best Bets during this same timeframe. This includes a 2-0 ATS mark in Bowl season, picking UCF (-7), which won by 21, and Washington (+5.5) which nearly won outright.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 ATS record (62%) on college basketball Best Bet picks. Brian has been in a zone with Best Bets all year, but has been especially hot in college football with a superb 19-11-1 ATS mark (63%) since Oct. 12. That makes Brian 57% (29-22-2 ATS) on CFB Best Bets this season.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It’s most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave also knows his pigskin, finishing better than 52% in all college football games last year. Dave has been surging in NBA Best Bets, going 7-3 ATS (70%) since Dec. 19.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a 156-99-1 (61%) record on all picks, which included a gaudy 54-25 ATS mark (68%) on college basketball Best Bets. Gary also knows his NBA, going 55.4% ATS (31-25-3) on NBA Best Bets for the year, and 57% ATS on all picks last week.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% ATS on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Scott also had a strong NFL playoff run, going 7-4 ATS (64%). Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages, going 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets. This year, he's potent in NBA too, going 54.4% ATS in Best Bets, and a stellar 42-25 (62%) on Totals.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. He still flexed his NBA muscle, however, as StatFox Brian racked up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the All-Star break. Brian is starting to find his way in NBA Best Bets, going 62% ATS (8-5) since Dec. 14.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between Sept. 25 and Dec. 31. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4). This season, it's 52% (57-52-1).

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave is currently on an impressive 20-11 ATS (65%) run in college hoops Best Bets from Dec. 9-23. That puts him at 54% ATS (58-50-2) in college hoops Best Bets for the season.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Football isn't Gary's only sport, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a gaudy 54-25 ATS (68%) mark on Best Bets. He's also been tremendous this year at 63% ATS (35-21) college hoops Best Bets, going 7-0 ATS since Dec. 19.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% against the spread on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Not merely a one-sport pony, Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages: He racked up a whopping 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets. Since Dec. 14, Scott is an outstanding 9-2-1 ATS on college hoops Best Bets.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. He also flexed his NBA muscle by racking up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the February All-Star break. He's starting to heat up in college hoops, going 55% ATS (17-14) on Best Bets since Nov. 30.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4).
