StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 10

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

StatFox NFL Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 10

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Colts have a chance to grab their fourth straight win, SU and ATS, but the Jags have beaten Indy three straight times, including a stunner at Indianapolis in Week 3. The Colts took a 17-16 lead with less than a minute to go, only to have Blaine Gabbert throw an 80-yard TD to Cecil Shorts on the next play, accounting for more than half of Gabbert's passing yards. The Colts outgained Jacksonville 437-333 in that game. Rookie QB Andrew Luck is on fire right now, throwing for an NFL rookie record 433 yards in last week's home win over Miami. The Jaguars have numerous injuries in their defensive backfield.

STATFOX FORECASTER: INDIANAPOLIS 21
JACKSONVILLE 17

BETTING SYSTEM:

Any team against the total - average rush team (3.5 to 4.5 YPR) against a poor rush defense (≥ 4.5 YPR) after 8+ games, after gaining 99 or less rush yards in 2 straight games. (33-8 Over) Play = Over the total

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

JACKSONVILLE is 7-4 ATS (5-6 SU) vs. INDIANAPOLIS (2-3 ATS, 2-3 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:

JACKSONVILLE is 23-9 OVER vs. good off. teams - averaging 350+ yds/gm in 2nd half of season since 1992. JACKSONVILLE is 12-4 UNDER against conference opponents over the L2 seasons. JACKSONVILLE is 13-4 OVER after playing a game at home over the L3 seasons. INDIANAPOLIS is 0-7 ATS vs. teams with losing record in 2nd half of the season over the L3 seasons. INDIANAPOLIS is 8-0 UNDER versus division opponents over the L2 seasons. INDIANAPOLIS is 13-2 OVER away after covering the spread in 4 out of their last 5 games since 1992.

NEW YORK GIANTS (-4)

vs

CINCINNATI BENGALS

• (217) NY GIANTS (SU: 6-3, ATS: 4-4) at (218) CINCINNATI (SU: 3-5, ATS: 2-5)

GAME BREAKDOWN: Home is about the last place the Bengals want to be these days. They've dropped four in a row, SU and ATS, three of them in Cincinnati, including last week's 30-23 loss to the Broncos. Their defense has held its own for the most part but QB Andy Dalton has developed into a serious liability, turning it over eight times over the last four games. The Giants have been one of the NFL's best road teams over the past year, winning eight of nine SU and ATS on road or neutral fields. They were smothered by Pittsburgh at home last week, generating just 182 yards of offense.

STATFOX FORECASTER: NY GIANTS 27
CINCINNATI 22

BETTING SYSTEM:

Road teams where the total is between 42.5 and 49 points - off an upset loss as a favorite, with a winning record on the season. (30-6 Over) Play = Over the total

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

CINCINNATI is 1-0 ATS (0-1 SU) vs. NY GIANTS (0-0 ATS, 0-0 SU at home.)

CINCINNATI is 17-7 OVER in all lined games over the L2 seasons. NY GIANTS are 10-1 ATS away when playing with 6 or less days rest over the L2 seasons. NY GIANTS are 28-52 ATS in November games since 1992. NY GIANTS are 26-47 ATS in weeks 10 through 13 since 1992.

TENNESSEE TITANS

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Titans continue to be one of the NFL's most schizophrenic teams. They managed to fumble six times, losing four, among their five turnovers last week, as they seem to be out of sorts offensively every other week. Miami has made close games a habit of late, with five of their last six games decided by four points or less. Their defense was a dud last week in Indianapolis, giving up 516 yards of offense, including 419 through the air, in a 23-20 loss, only the second time they've allowed more than 400 yards of offense this season.

STATFOX FORECASTER: TENNESSEE 19
MIAMI 27

BETTING SYSTEM:

Home teams - after 1 or more consecutive losses against the spread, in November games. (37-83 ATS) Play = TENNESSEE against the spread

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

MIAMI is 2-0 ATS (1-1 SU) vs. TENNESSEE (1-0 ATS, 1-0 SU at home.)

TENNESSEE is 4-15 ATS away after 2 or more consecutive losses against the spread since 1992. TENNESSEE is 2-11 ATS after gaining 6 or more yards/play in their previous game over the L3 seasons. TENNESSEE is 31-17 ATS after failing to cover the spread in 4 or 5 out of their last 6 games since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: In Week 4, Minnesota got kickoff and punt return TDs to fuel a 20-13 win in which they were outgained 341-227. But the Vikings have looked awful in back-to-back games, a 19-point home loss to Tampa and a 10-point road loss to Seattle. QB Christian Ponder completed just 51.4% of his passes for 124.0 YPG, two TDs and four INTs over his past three games. RB Adrian Peterson has gone for 152.7 YPG and 8.3 YPC over those three games. Detroit has won two straight, SU and ATS, as their offense has gotten back on track. They scored 59 points over the past two after scoring just 46 over the previous three.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Falcons are looking to snap a four-game losing streak against the Saints. Their last trip to New Orleans was particularly ugly, with Drew Brees and the offense hanging 45 points on Atlanta in a 45-16 Saints victory. The unbeaten Falcons have a different look this year, with a much more wide open offense and new defensive coordinator Mike Nolan's unique looks on defense. The Saints had struggled to contain anyone all season until the Eagles came to town with their decimated offensive line on Monday night. The Atlanta offense poses a much bigger challenge with the team's many weapons.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Tampa returns home after building momentum during a successful road swing. The Bucs scored double-digit wins at Minnesota and Oakland. QB Josh Freeman has thrown for 314.3 YPG with 11 TDs and one INT over his past four games, and rookie RB Doug Martin has gone for 608 scrimmage yards and seven TDs in his last three. The Chargers may have righted their ship Thursday night, beating the Chiefs 31-13. But they got a big boost from K.C.'s incompetence, scoring two defensive touchdowns among their four takeaways. QB Peyton Manning has looked like the Peyton of old over the past five games, completing 75.7% of his passes for 316.0 YPG, including 15 TDs and three INTs during that span. The Panthers' season was going down the toilet before an upset win in Washington last week. Their porous defense had its best effort since Week 1, holding the Redskins to 337 yards of offense and 13 points. QB Cam Newton managed the game well but was underwhelming again, throwing 13-for-23 for 201 yards—but no turnovers—against Washington's league-worst secondary.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Baltimore has a chance to extend their 15-game SU home winning streak, but they've been a little shaky of late. They've failed to cover in their last three and six of their last seven home games. And last week in Cleveland, they were outplayed for most of the game but managed to bend-not-break on defense in a 25-15 victory. The Raiders have had some success heading east of late, nearly upsetting the Falcons in Atlanta in Week 6 and handily topping K.C. two weeks ago. They could be without their top two backs though, as both Darren McFadden and Mike Goodson suffered ankle injuries in last week's loss to Tampa.

After beating Minnesota 30-20 last week, holding the Vikings to 44 net passing yards, the Seahawks are now 14-7 SU and 16-5 ATS at home during the Pete Carroll era, including 6-1 SU and 7-0 ATS since last December. The Jets have covered their past two road games, but there are question marks surrounding their offense again after a brutal home performance against Miami two weeks ago in a 30-9 loss. Dallas managed just seven points in each of their matchups with the Eagles a year ago. QB Tony Romo was just 18-for-35 for 203 yards in the first game, then was injured in the first quarter of their second matchup. Eagles QB Michael Vick has torched Dallas since joining the Eagles, posting a 109.7 passer rating with six TDs and two INTs, in three starts against them. GAME BREAKDOWN: The Rams haven't won SU in San Francisco since 2007 (1-3 ATS during that span), and it won't be any easier this year. QB Sam Bradford missed both games against the Niners last season, but had relative success against them in 2010 (73.4% completion rate, two TDs, no INTs in two games). The Rams offense has had a rough time during their recent three-game slide, scoring just 41 points total. Chicago continues to force an incredible number of turnovers, 28 takeaways through eight games, including five more in Tennessee last week. GAME BREAKDOWN

At this point, the Chiefs are just looking to not get embarrassed. They turned it over four more times in their 31-13 loss at San Diego last Thursday night, giving them 29 giveaways on the season. They might insert Brady Quinn, one of the league's least effective QBs, back into the lineup. The Steelers have dominated their last three opponents offensively, two of them among the league's most high-powered teams (Washington and the Giants). They've allowed 207.3 yards of offense/game during their three-game winning streak. Offensively, they've been excellent on third downs all season, converting a league-leading 51.3%. They will likely be without playmaking WR Antonio Brown (ankle) for this game though.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave has been strong in his college picks over the past seven weeks, going 67-43-2 ATS (61%) overall. That puts him at a hefty 60% ATS (93-63-3) for the entire season. Dave has also posted a profitable 58% ATS on his Best Bets (33-24) for the season.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Gary has been on a roll in the past five weeks, going 10-5 ATS (67%) on his Best Bets. This past week he expected "a rout" for Ohio's 45-14 win over Eastern Michigan. This has boosted Gary's season college football Best Bets mark to 19-14 (58% ATS).

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox and Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a two-year college football run in which his Best Bets success rate was 56%. Scott has really found his groove in the past two weeks, going 8-4 ATS in his Best Bets including 5-2 ATS in games not included in the above grid of marquee games. All three of these non-BCS conference underdogs not only covered this past week, but won outright! ECU (+3.5) crushed Houston, 48-28, SDSU (+13.5) upset Boise St. and ULL (+10) stunned ULM.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 ATS record (62%) on college basketball Best Bet picks. Brian has been locked in with his Best Bets all year, but has been especially hot lately with an eye-popping 12-3 ATS mark in his past four weeks. That makes Brian 61% (22-14 ATS) on his Best Bets for the season.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS.

THE PLATINUM SHEET
StatFox College Football Power Rating Lines - Week 11

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox College Football Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 11

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Texas is 8-1 SU (4-4 ATS) all-time against Iowa State, but the one defeat was the last meeting in Austin, a 28-21 Cyclones win in 2010. The Longhorns avenged that loss last year in Ames, as David Ash was 8-of-13 for 156 yards and 2 TD in a 37-14 blowout. Ash's 264 passing yards and 3 TD helped Texas snap a four-game ATS slide with last week's 31-22 win at Texas Tech. ISU has dropped three of its past four (1-2-1 ATS), allowing 400+ passing yards in each of the past three games, but is 2-1 (SU and ATS) on the road.

STATFOX FORECASTER: Iowa State 22
Texas 31

GAME BREAKDOWN: These schools has met five previous times with TCU winning the past three games. The most recent matchup was a 35-22 Horned Frogs win in 1986. The big story here is the health of Kansas State star QB Collin Klein, who left last week's game with an apparent head injury. Early-week reports are speculating Klein will play for the Wildcats who are 5-0-1 ATS in the past six games. TCU has multiple giveaways in seven of eight games versus FBS opponents, totaling 23 TO for the season. KSU has just 3 TO in 2012.

STATFOX FORECASTER: Kansas State 31

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave started this season out on the right foot by nailing 58% of his NBA picks overall, while posting a 56% success rate in his NBA Best Bets with a 9-7-1 week.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a 156-99-1 (61%) record on all picks, which included a gaudy 54-25 record against the spread (68%) on college basketball Best Bets.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% ATS on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Scott also had a strong NFL playoff run, going 7-4 ATS (64%). Not merely a one-sport pony, Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages, going 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets. Scott is an impressive 8-3 on NBA Totals to start this season.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. He still flexed his NBA muscle, however, as StatFox Brian racked up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the February All-Star break. Brian has a stellar 10-3 record on NBA Totals to start this season.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4).

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave also knows his pigskin, finishing better than 52% in all college football games last year, capping off his season with a 4-1 Best Bets ATS mark in the bowl games.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a 156-99-1 (61%) record on all picks, which included a gaudy 54-25 record against the spread (68%) on college basketball Best Bets.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% against the spread on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Scott also had a strong NFL playoff run, going 7-4 ATS (64%). Not merely a one-sport pony, Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages: He racked up a whopping 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. It was a performance that did nothing to distract him from flexing his NBA muscle, however, as StatFox Brian racked up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the February All-Star break.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4).
