StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 4

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox NFL Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 4

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

NFL GAME BREAKDOWNS: WEEK 4

CLEVELAND BROWNS

vs

BALTIMORE RAVENS (-12½)

• (101) CLEVELAND (SU: 0-3, ATS: 1-1) at (102) BALTIMORE (SU: 2-1, ATS: 2-1)

	TEAM OFFENSE								TEAM DEFENSE
	PDIF	SS	PPG	FD	RUSHING	PASSING	TOTAL	F-I	PPG	FD	RUSHING	PASSING	TOTAL	F-I	TOD
CLEVELAND	-6.0	19	19	17	19-87 (4.5)	38-22-209 (5.5)	57-296 (5.2)	0-2	25	22	30-123 (4.1)	41-25-269 (6.6)	71-392 (5.5)	1-2	E

GAME BREAKDOWN: QB Brandon Weeden and the Browns' struggling offense is in for a long night in this one. The rookie has been quite shaky through his first three NFL games, and a road start in Baltimore is an incredibly tough environment. The Ravens figure to utilize their uptempo, no-huddle offense even more in this one in order to maximize possessions and keep Cleveland from shortening the game. Baltimore is coming off an emotional win over New England, with WR Torrey Smith having a career night (127 yards, two TDs) less than 24 hours after losing his brother in a motorcycle accident.

STATFOX FORECASTER: CLEVELAND13
BALTIMORE23

BETTING SYSTEM:

Home favorites of 10.5 or more points - after covering the spread in 2 out of their last 3 games, good team, winning 60-75% or more of their games on the season. (27-62 ATS) Play = CLEVELAND ATS

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

BALTIMORE is 6-4 ATS (8-2 SU) vs. CLEVELAND (2-3 ATS, 4-1 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:

BALTIMORE is 9-1 ATS at home after a win by 3 or less points since 1992.
BALTIMORE is 20-7 ATS at home after scoring 30 points or more last game since 1992.
BALTIMORE is 25-10 ATS at home after a playing a game where 50+ total points were scored since 1992.
CLEVELAND is 12-29 ATS versus good rushing defenses - allowing <=3.5 rushing yards/carry since 1992.
CLEVELAND is 7-0 UNDER after 2 or more consecutive losses over the L2 seasons.
CLEVELAND is 10-2 UNDER after 1 or more consecutive losses over the L2 seasons.

CAROLINA PANTHERS

GAME BREAKDOWN: Carolina has some serious issues coming into this game. They were hammered at home by the Giants last Thursday night, failing to generate a pass rush, cover anyone in the secondary, or stop the run. And Cam Newton continues to look less decisive in his second season. The Falcons, meanwhile, continue to play great overall and especially at home, where they've won five in a row at the Georgia Dome SU (3-0-2 ATS). They've also handled the Panthers four straight times, SU and ATS, overall, as well as four in a row at home.

STATFOX FORECASTER: CAROLINA22

BETTING SYSTEM:

Road teams against the total - off an upset loss as a home favorite, in the first half of the season. (36-8 Over) Play = Over the total

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

ATLANTA is 1-9 ATS after leading their last 2 games by 10+ points at the half since 1992.

CAROLINA is 7-0 OVER vs. poor rush defenses - allowing >=4.5 rushing yards/carry over the L2 seasons.
CAROLINA is 36-21 UNDER in September games since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Bills are looking to recapture the magic they used in beating the Patriots at home last September. Though this year, Buffalo is a game up on New England in the standings. A year ago, the Bills intercepted Tom Brady four times and got a near-perfect second half from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick in a 34-31 win. In the teams' Week 17 rematch in New England, the Bills jumped ahead 21-0 before blasting Buffalo with 49 unanswered points. Despite the upset last fall the Pats have owned Buffalo, beating them in 16 of their past 17 meetings SU (11-5-1 ATS).

STATFOX FORECASTER: NEW ENGLAND35
BUFFALO23

BETTING SYSTEM:

Favorites - after covering the spread in 2 out of their last 3 games, a bad team (25% to 40%) playing a team with a winning record. (37-11 ATS) Play = NEW ENGLAND against the spread

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

BUFFALO is 3-6 ATS (1-9 SU) vs. NEW ENGLAND (1-3 ATS, 1-4 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:

BUFFALO is 33-56 ATS after covering the spread in 2 out of their last 3 games since 1992.
BUFFALO is 17-31 ATS after allowing 7 points or less in the first half in 2 straight games since 1992.
BUFFALO is 14-3 OVER at home vs. teams with a turnover margin of +1 per game or better since 1992.
NEW ENGLAND is 12-1 OVER versus division opponents over the L3 seasons.
NEW ENGLAND is 8-0 OVER after 2 consecutive games with TO margin of +1 or better over L2 seasons.
NEW ENGLAND is 15-2 OVER after allowing 6 or more yds/play in their previous game over L3 seasons.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

DETROIT LIONS (-4½)

DETROIT	-2.3	18	29	26	27-102 (3.8)	45-31-334 (7.4)	72-436 (6.1)	0-1		31	20	24-95 (3.9)	33-22-251 (7.7)	57-346 (6.1)	1-0	-2

GAME BREAKDOWN: Both these teams are tough to peg. The Vikings looked mediocre at best over the season's first two weeks before upending the 49ers at home in Week 3, with QB Christian Ponder engineering a conservative masterpiece against the Niners' top-ranked defense. The Lions, on the other hand, turned to a ball control attack for RB Mikel LeShoure's NFL debut despite their advantages in every other aspect of the game in Tennessee, allowing the Titans to stick around and steal a wild overtime upset. The Vikings have lost their last two visits to Detroit SU, but split those games ATS, both one-possession Detroit wins.

STATFOX FORECASTER: MINNESOTA 25
DETROIT 32

BETTING SYSTEM:

Any team - off an upset win as a home underdog, with a winning record on the season. (72-136 ATS)
Play = DETROIT against the spread

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

DETROIT is 3-4 ATS (4-6 SU) vs. MINNESOTA (2-2 ATS, 3-2 SU at home.)

DETROIT is 13-2 ATS at home after a road game where both teams scored 24 or more points since 1992.
DETROIT is 10-0 OVER off a road loss over the L3 seasons.
DETROIT is 14-3 OVER after playing their last game on the road over the L3 seasons.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Chiefs rallied for their first win of the year in K.C. last week behind a very encouraging performance from their rushing attack. RB Jamaal Charles, still not quite himself coming off a torn ACL, went for 233 yards on a whopping 33 carries. Meanwhile, San Diego came back down to Earth as their sputtering offense did nothing in a loss to Atlanta. The Chargers have dropped each of their last two visits to K.C., SU and ATS. Last Halloween, the Chargers were setting up for a game-winning chip shot field goal in the final minute before Rivers fumbled a snap, sending the game to overtime instead.

vs

ST. LOUIS RAMS

• (217) SEATTLE (SU: 2-1, ATS: 2-1) at (218) ST LOUIS (SU: 1-2, ATS: 2-1)

	TEAM OFFENSE								TEAM DEFENSE
	PDIF	SS	PPG	FD	RUSHING	PASSING	TOTAL	F-I	PPG	FD	RUSHING	PASSING	TOTAL	F-I	TOD
SEATTLE (WEEK 2)	+8.0	21	22	19	37-148 (4.0)	27-16-136 (5.0)	64-284 (4.4)	0-0	14	18	18-46 (2.6)	38-22-228 (6.0)	56-274 (4.9)	1-1	+2
ST LOUIS	-6.0	20	20	16	24-96 (4.1)	32-20-192 (6.1)	56-288 (5.1)	1-1	26	22	27-121 (4.5)	36-23-238 (6.6)	63-359 (5.7)	0-2	E

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Seahawks are coming off a bizarre home win over Green Bay, one in which their defense led them again and their passing game continues to be largely absent. They've earned a reputation as a team that doesn't get it done on the road, as evidenced by their 5-13 SU, 6-11-1 ATS record on the road since 2010. But the Seahawks have felt right at home at St. Louis, where they've won four of five (SU and ATS). The Rams looked downright awful in losing at Chicago last week, generating nothing offensively as QB Sam Bradford continues to be a work-in progress.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	SEATTLE	24

GAME BREAKDOWN: Last week might have been a wake-up call for the 49ers, as San Fran has now lost five of six ATS away from home. But despite a slip-up in Minnesota, this team hadn't had many issues coming East for early games under Jim Harbaugh, as they went 5-0 SU, 4-1 ATS in 1:00 starts last season. The Jets pulled out a comeback win in Miami last week, but this team is in trouble as their best player, CB Darrelle Revis (knee) is done for the year. Their offense is weak and their defense again looked ordinary last week, allowing 185 rushing yards to a one-dimensional Miami offense missing RB Reggie Bush for half the game.

TENNESSEE TITANS

HOUSTON TEXANS (-11½)

	TEAM OFFENSE								TEAM DEFENSE

HOUSTON	+15.3	17	29	23	39-150 (3.9)	32-21-244 (7.6)	71-394 (5.5)	0-0	14	16	18-68 (3.8)	36-18-188 (5.2)	54-256 (4.7)	1-1	+4

GAME BREAKDOWN: Houston returns home as arguably the AFC's best team after topping the Broncos in Denver. With questions surrounding their passing offense, QB Matt Schaub used play-action to light it up early en route to 290 yards on only 30 throws and four TDs. They're 7-2 ATS at home in meaningful games over the past two seasons (they played their back-ups in a meaningless Week 17 loss and cover to Tennessee last season). The Titans seem ill-equipped to handle Houston, as they continue to have no running game and needed two special teams and a defensive TD in last week's wild overtime win over Detroit.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	TENNESSEE	15
	HOUSTON	24

BETTING SYSTEM:

Underdogs of 10.5 or more points - poor team - outscored by opponents by 4 or more points/game, after allowing 30 points or more last game. (28-7 ATS) Play = TENNESSEE against the spread

SERIES HISTORY - LAST 5 SEASONS:

TENNESSEE is 17-5 UNDER away vs. good offensive teams - scoring 24 or more points/game since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Jaguars pulled off a shocker last week in Indy, as they were thoroughly outplayed and QB Blaine Gabbert was in the midst of another nightmare game before fitting a throw in to Cecil Shorts for an 80-yard catch-and-run game-winner. These teams played a back-and-forth battle in Jacksonville last year, with both offenses struggling. Cincy scored a go-ahead touchdown with two minutes left, then added a fumble recovery TD on the game's final play to make it a 30-20 win. The Jags are still tripping up offensively, but the Bengals have topped 30 points in each of the past two weeks.

STATFOX FORECASTER: CINCINNATI 23
JACKSONVILLE 20

BETTING SYSTEM:

Road teams where the line is +3 to -3 - after 2 consecutive games where they forced 1 or less turnovers against opp. after 2 consecutive game where they committed 1 or less TOs. (25-4 ATS) Play = CINCINNATI ATS

GAME BREAKDOWN: Arizona looks to keep their unlikely success going when their rapidly improving defense welcomes struggling Dolphins rookie QB Ryan Tannehill to the desert. The Cards have now held down the high-powered offenses of New England (18 points) and Philly (six points) in back-to-back weeks. Tannehill has struggled this year, especially last week in an overtime loss to the Jets, in which he was 16-for-36 with an INT. He's completed just 52.9% of his passes this year, and Miami could be without their best offensive player in RB Reggie Bush (knee).

STATFOX FORECASTER: MIAMI 18
ARIZONA 20

BETTING SYSTEM:

Any team - average offensive team (4.9 to 5.4 YPP) against a team with a good defense (4.5 to 4.9 YPP), after allowing 375 or more total yards in 2 consecutive games. (6-27 ATS) Play = ARIZONA ATS

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Broncos will be trying to beat Oakland SU at home for the first time since 2007 (they've also lost six straight home games ATS to the Raiders). Denver has fallen behind early each of the past two weeks as their new, Peyton Manning-led offense has yet to click. Oakland was arguably the worst team in football before a come-from-behind win over the Steelers in Week 3. In the teams' last meeting, at Oakland last November, the Raiders led by 10 before Tim Tebow and the Broncos rallied for a 38-24 victory. Carson Palmer threw for 332 yards against Denver's still beleaguered secondary, but also threw three picks.

GAME BREAKDOWN: These teams played a classic in the 2011 opener, a 42-34 Packers win that came down to the last possession, but so far in 2012 the teams have combined for one win. New Orleans hasn't missed Sean Payton on the offensive side of the ball, but they can't tackle, allowing 200-plus rushing yards in each of the past two weeks (including 273 to the Chiefs last week). Green Bay had serious problems in pass protection in last week's bizarre last-second loss in Seattle. They've scored just 57 points on the season, but have faced three excellent defenses so far. The Saints might be the worst defensive team in the NFL.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	NEW ORLEANS	31

BETTING SYSTEM:

GAME BREAKDOWN: After encouraging openers, both these teams are crashing back to Earth. For all of Robert Griffin III's excitement, he was not sharp in the passing game last week against Cincinnati and the Redskins defense continues to struggle. The Bucs took a step back offensively in Week 3, managing 166 yards and going 3-for-15 on third down in Dallas. Their defense, especially against the run, has been better, but they're still prone to giving up big plays in the passing game (eight pass plays of 25+ yards allowed so far, tied for third-most in the league), a potential problem against a Redskins offense that relies on the big play.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Philly has already turned it over an NFL-high 12 times, nine by QB Michael Vick who's taking an absolute beating due to poor protection and his tendency to hold onto the ball. The Giants' secondary is banged up; good news for Philly with WR Jeremy Maclin (hip) likely to return. The Giants were without key offensive players in WR Hakeem Nicks, OT David Diehl and RB Ahmad Bradshaw but still blasted the Panthers in Carolina last Thursday night. The Giants have dropped seven of eight to the Eagles (SU and ATS), but pulled off a Week 3 win in Philly a year ago, 29-16, over a talented but mistake-prone team.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Both of these teams are still feeling their way offensively, as the Bears are without RB Matt Forte (ankle) and QB Jay Cutler is playing erratic, and the Cowboys have failed to move the ball the past two games after an impressive opening win against the Giants. Chicago had just 168 yards of offense and four turnovers in their Week 2 loss at Green Bay, and 274 yards in last week's home win over the Rams. Dallas has been riding their much-improved defense this year, and they smothered the Bucs in Week 3 despite having to move newly signed top CB Brandon Carr to safety in their increasingly patchwork secondary.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave had a banner week in his college football picks, going 14-2 ATS. That increases his season win percentage to a stellar 65%, as he's 18 games over .500. Dave has also turned a profit in his college football Best Bets.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary continues his surge on college football Best Bets by going 4-1 ATS in Week 4, making him 6-2 ATS (75%) over the past two weeks. Gary's two Pac-12 picks were spot-on—USC winning big over Cal and Oregon crushing Arizona 49-0. Even more impressive was his pick of 14.5-point underdog Kansas State, which beat Oklahoma straight up.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox and Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a two-year college football run in which his Best Bets success rate was 56%. Scott went 3-1 ATS in featured game Best Bets, showing that he's not afraid to lay the wood by playing a pair of double-digit favorites (TCU over Virginia, and South Carolina over Missouri). He also picked Oregon State, stating, "Expect the final outcome of Oregon State-UCLA to be within a single possession." OSU, a 7-point underdog, won by seven.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. Brian continues to be the leader of the experts in college football Best Bets, compiling an 8-4 ATS mark (67%) so far this year, thanks to three-out-of-four winning weeks of Best Bets.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regular-season games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. Forecaster continues to be on the mark in college football, posting an impressive 60% ATS mark on featured games so far in 2012.

THE PLATINUM SHEET StatFox College Football Power Rating Lines - Week 5

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox College Football Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 5

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

ABBREVIATIONS:

OL - Opening Line

OF - StatFox Outplay Factor Rating - adjusted for home field advantage.
