Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox NFL Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 4

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Giants notched their first win of the season on Sunday, picking off Ryan Fitzpatrick three times on their way to a 30-17 home victory. The Redskins, meanwhile, lost in Philadelphia in a 37-34 shootout despite holding Philadelphia star running back LeSean McCoy to just 22 yards on 19 carries. The Redskins will again be led by quarterback Kirk Cousins, who threw for 427 yards against the Eagles. Since the start of last season, Washington is 4-1 ATS when Cousins has taken the majority of the snaps versus 3-10 ATS when Robert Griffin III has been at quarterback.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	New York Giants...........20

WASHINGTON is 5-5 ATS (3-7 SU) vs. NY GIANTS (3-2 ATS, 2-3 SU at home.)

STATFOX SIX PACK:
• WASHINGTON is 5-17 ATS at home when playing against a bad team (Win Pct. 25% to 40%) since 1992.
• WASHINGTON is 12-28 ATS at home in the first month of the season since 1992.
• WASHINGTON is 37-59 ATS as a home favorite since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Tennessee enters this one off a 33-7 loss in Cincinnati on Sunday, as quarterback Jake Locker threw two interceptions in his second straight underwhelming performance. The Colts, meanwhile, won 44-17 in Jacksonville behind 370 yards and four touchdown passes from quarterback Andrew Luck. Expect the Indianapolis defense to try to put pressure on Locker in order to prevent him from getting comfortable like he did against Kansas City in Week 1. The Colts have won five straight (SU and ATS) versus the Titans. Tennessee QB Jake Locker (wrist) and Indianapolis WR T.Y. Hilton (ankle) are both questionable.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Tennessee 22

BETTING SYSTEM:
Any team where the total is between 42.5 and 49 points - good team - outscoring opponents by 4+ points/game, after allowing 3 points or less in the first half last game. (62-23 Over) Play = Over the total

• TENNESSEE is 7-0 OVER after scoring 7 points or less in first half in 2 straight games over L3 seasons.
• TENNESSEE is 12-2 OVER vs. teams with 32+ minutes TOP, 21+ FD's per game since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Panthers lost 37-19 at home to the Steelers on Sunday night, setting a franchise low in rushing attempts with 10. Carolina's defense allowed Pittsburgh to rush for 264 yards, which was the third-highest total in Panther history. They'll go up against a Baltimore running game that has rushed for the eighth-most yards in the NFL through three games, thanks in part to rookie Lorenzo Taliaferro picking up 91 yards on 18 carries in Sunday's 23-21 win in Cleveland. Panthers RB DeAngelo Williams will likely play, while RB Jonathan Stewart (knee) and RB Mike Tolbert (leg) will not.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Carolina 18

BETTING SYSTEM:
Road teams where total is between 35.5 and 42 points - outrushed by their opponents by 1+ yards/carry on the season, after gaining 75 or less rush yards in 2 straight games. (31-9 Over) Play = Over the total

GAME BREAKDOWN: Two teams coming off of their first losses of the young season meet in Houston. While the Bills suffered a 22-10 home loss to the Chargers, Texans quarterback Ryan Fitz-patrick threw his first three interceptions of 2014 in a 30-17 loss to the Giants. Expect Buffalo to try to establish its running game against a Houston defense that allowed 193 rushing yards to the Giants. While the Bills are 3-11 ATS after playing a game at home since the start of the 2012 season, the Texans are 0-8 ATS since the start of last season after playing their last game on the road. Houston RB Arian Foster (hamstring) is questionable for this one.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Buffalo	20

BETTING SYSTEM:

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Packers travel to Chicago after gaining just 223 total yards in a 19-7 loss in Detroit. Expect Green Bay to be able to have more success, particularly through the air, against a Bears defense that's been decimated by injuries in the second-ary—at one point in their 27-19 Monday night win over the Jets, the Bears were lining up with rookies Brock Vereen and newly signed Ahmad Dixon as their two safeties. The Packers have enjoyed success when playing in Chicago in recent years, going 4-0 (SU and ATS) in their past four trips to Soldier Field. Green Bay LB Clay Matthews (groin) is questionable for this game.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Green Bay	24
	Chicago	30

COACHING POWER TREND:
Trestman is 1-8 ATS (-7.8 Units) versus poor defensive teams - allowing >=350 yards/game as the coach of CHICAGO.

SERIES HISTORY – LAST 5 SEASONS:

⚡statfox SUPER SITUATIONS

Situational analysis uncovers conditions and patterns where teams have consistently outper-formed or underperformed their normal levels. These systems are not team specific—the principle is that teams fall into patterns regardless of personnel (i.e. good passing teams, teams seeking revenge, cold teams on a losing streak, etc.).

• Play On - Road teams where the line is +3 to -3 (BUFFALO) - after 2 consecutive game in which they committed no turnovers.

• The situation's record is 39-11 over the last 10 seasons (78.0%, +26.9 units).

NFL GAME BREAKDOWNS: WEEK 4

DETROIT LIONS (-1½) vs NEW YORK JETS

- (261) DETROIT (SU: 2-1, ATS: 2-1) at (262) NY JETS (SU: 1-2, ATS: 0-2-1) - Sunday, 9/28/2014 1:00 PM

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Lions head to New York to take on the Jets after defeating the Packers 19-7 in Detroit last week. The Lions defense was stifling, holding Aaron Rodgers to just 162 yards and one touchdown. They also limited the Packers to just 76 rushing yards. That does not bode well for the Jets, a team that relies heavily on the run. Matthew Stafford threw for 246 yards with no touchdowns and two interceptions against Green Bay, but a matchup with a miserable Jets' secondary is just what the doctor ordered for the Lions' QB. That secondary could also be without Dee Milliner (quad), who is questionable for the Jets.

- NY JETS are 26-12 ATS versus good defensive teams - allowing <=285 yards/game since 1992.
- Rex Ryan is 7-0 OVER vs. teams who give up 17 or less points/game as coach of NY JETS.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Two struggling teams meet in London's Wembley Stadium. The Dolphins hosted the Chiefs last week and lost 34-15 due in large part to their inability to pick up yards in key situations—Miami was just 4-of-15 on third down and 0-of-2 on fourth down in the game. Expect them to lean heavily on running back Lamar Miller against an Oakland defense that's given up more rushing yards than any NFL team except for the Jaguars. The Raiders have the last-ranked offense in the NFL, as they're averaging a paltry 254.3 yards per game while scoring only 37 points over three games this season.

- OAKLAND is 25-9 ATS away vs. poor punt coverage teams, allowing >= 12 yards per return since 1992.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Buccaneers were thoroughly embarrassed in a 56-14 loss to the Falcons on Thursday night. Quarterback Josh McCown suffered a thumb injury that will keep him sidelined for the next few weeks; he'll be replaced by Mike Glennon, who inherits an offense that is averaging only 163.3 passing yards per game, the NFL's worst mark through three weeks. The Steelers won 37-19 in Carolina Sunday night behind 454 yards of total offense. They'll now face a Tampa Bay defense that allowed 488 total yards to the Falcons. Buccaneers RB Doug Martin (knee) hasn't played since Week 1 and is questionable for this one.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Jaguars were embarrassed at home by the Colts on Sunday to fall to 0-3 both SU & ATS on the young season. It's the fourth straight season that Jacksonville has gotten off to a terrible start: The Jags went 1-4 SU & ATS over their first five games of 2011, 1-4 SU & 1-3-1 ATS to begin 2012, and 0-5 both SU & ATS to start 2013. Quarterback Chad Henne was benched in the loss to Indianapolis, so rookie Blake Bortles takes over as Jacksonville's starter. The Chargers are coming off of a 22-10 win in Buffalo, but they'll be without either of their top two running backs, Ryan Mathews and Danny Woodhead.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Despite the fact that the Eagles have yet to put together a complete game of solid football, Philadelphia finds itself at 3-0 SU after a 37-34 victory over the Redskins. The 49ers, meanwhile, fell to 1-2 after a 23-14 loss to a Carson Palmer-less Cardinals team. While the Eagles will likely try to speed up the tempo of this game, expect the 49ers to attempt to control the clock. The last time these teams met was in Week 4 of the 2011 season, a game that San Francisco won, 24-23, despite being a 10-point road underdog. GAME BREAKDOWN: The Falcons dominated both sides of the ball in a 56-14 demolition of the Buccaneers on Thursday night. They'll now face a Vikings team that lost 20-9 in New Orleans on Sunday and hasn't scored a touchdown since less than five minutes into the game against the Patriots two weeks ago. Minnesota will go with rookie quarterback Teddy Bridgewater in place of the injured Matt Cassel, so expect Atlanta to try to apply as much pressure as possible. GAME BREAKDOWN: The Saints are back on the road one week after a 20-9 win in their home opener against the Vikings. They now face a Dallas defense that quarterback Drew Brees torched to the tune of 392 passing yards in a 49-17 blowout last November 10. That game was in New Orleans, however, where the Saints are 8-1 ATS since the start of last season—that stands in stark contrast to the 3-10 ATS mark they've posted over their past 13 regular-season road games. Dallas, however, is just 2-10 ATS at home under current head coach Jason Garrett when facing defenses that allow a completion percentage of at least 61 percent.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Dave was especially strong in the college sports last season, posting a 55% ATS mark (38-31-2) in 2013 CFB Best Bets. This included a hefty 77% ATS record (17-5-1) on college football games that were not part of the marquee games grid above. Dave then went on to nail 62% ATS (70-43-2) in college basketball Best Bets. Dave was a perfect 5-0 ATS in NFL Best Bets in Week 3, giving him a 60% ATS mark (9-6) this season.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary finished strong in NFL Best Bets last season as well, going 67% ATS (16-8-2) after Week 9. He did the same thing in college basketball Best Bets with a 63% ATS mark (30-18) after Feb. 5 to finish with a 57% ATS record (64-49-2) in CBB Best Bets for the season. Gary was also 9-3-1 ATS (75%) in pre-October CFB Best Bets last season.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide. Scott really finished strong last season in NFL Best Bets, as he recorded a 59% ATS mark (33-23-2) after Week 3, and was outstanding on NFL totals all year at 56% (40-31), including a perfect 5-0 in the postseason games. His college basketball season also represented a huge finish, as Scott was 64% ATS (25-14-3) in college hoops Best Bets after Feb. 14. Scott is coming off a perfect NFL Week 3 in both Best Bets (4-0 ATS) and Totals (3-0).

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on Stat-Fox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football or NFL since coming on board in 2010. Last year marked Brian's second straight 60% ATS (41-27-6) season record in NFL Best Bets, but it was his college basketball prowess that really stood out in 2013-14. Brian finished with a remarkable 69% ATS record (76-34-5) on CBB Best Bets for the season, a mark that including an eye-popping 77% ATS record (44-13-4) after Jan. 17. Brian is 9-0 in NFL Totals this year.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by winning records in all four sports' featured Platinum Sheet games last year. The Forecaster correctly predicted the ATS winner for 59% (149-105-12) of all NFL games, 57% (151-114-8) of all CFB games, 53% (207-181-12) of all NBA games and 51% (189-183-11) in college basketball last season.

StatFox College Football Power Rating Lines - Week 5

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox College Football Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 5

 The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

ABBREVIATIONS:
OL - Opening Line
OF - StatFox Outplay Factor Rating - adjusted for home field advantage.
OFL - Calculated Outplay Factor Line

GAME BREAKDOWN: This will be the first power conference opponent Oklahoma State has faced since QB Daxx Garman replaced the injured J.W. Walsh. Garman completed 57.1% of his passes for 4 TD and 0 INT in wins over Missouri State (but not a cover) and UTSA. Texas Tech is looking to recover after a 49-28 loss to Arkansas in its last game. The Red Raiders have dropped five in a row to the Cowboys, SU and ATS, including last year's 52-34 loss in Lubbock. Tech had 549 yards of offense in that game, but turned it over three times.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Texas Tech 23	•Mike Gundy is 10-0 OVER at home after a win by 28 or more points as coach of OKLAHOMA ST.
	Oklahoma State 55	•Mike Gundy is 13-1 OVER at home after gaining 475+ total yards in 2 straight games as coach of OK ST.
		•Mike Gundy is 51-24 ATS as a favorite as coach of OKLAHOMA ST..

UCLA (-5) | VS | ARIZONA STATE

• (107) UCLA (SU: 3-0, ATS: 0-3) at (108) ARIZONA ST (SU: 3-0, ATS: 1-2) - Thursday, 9/25/2014 10:00 PM

GAME BREAKDOWN: Arizona State will be without QB Taylor Kelly (foot), while UCLA QB Brett Hundley's status is up in the air because of an elbow injury. The Sun Devils went to L.A. and won last year, 38-33, behind Kelly's 225 passing yards and 99 rushing yards. Back-up Mike Bercovici did not look good in relief of Kelly against Colorado two weeks ago; ASU went just 28 yards over three drives under his direction. With Hundley out, Bruins second-stringer Jerry Neuheisel was 23-for-30 for 178 yards and two TDs in a 20-17 win over Texas.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	UCLA 34	•UCLA is 7-0 UNDER in road games over the L2 seasons.
	Arizona State 27	•Todd Graham is 9-1 OVER at home after scoring 24 points or more in the first half last game.
		•Todd Graham is 12-3 ATS as a home underdog.

FRESNO STATE (-5½) | VS | NEW MEXICO

• (111) FRESNO ST (SU: 1-3, ATS: 1-3) at (112) NEW MEXICO (SU: 1-2, ATS: 0-3) - Friday, 9/26/2014 8:00 PM

GAME BREAKDOWN: Fresno is hoping for a repeat of last year, when they beat New Mexico 69-28 at home as 34-point favorites. The Bulldogs rolled up 822 yards of offense in that game, though this year's offense is completely rebuilt with QB Derek Carr gone and Brian Burrell and Brandon Connette splitting time in an ineffective passing game. Fresno did have 389 rushing yards in a 56-16 win over Southern Utah last week. The Lobos got their first SU win of 2014 last week, with a last-minute TD in a 38-35 win over New Mexico State.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Fresno State 48	•FRESNO ST is 7-0 OVER in the first half of the season over the L2 seasons.
	New Mexico 38	•Tim DeRuyter is 9-1 UNDER after gaining 6.75+ yards/play in their previous game as coach of FRESNO ST.
		•Tim DeRuyter is 7-0 ATS versus teams averaging >=4.75 rushing yards/carry as coach of FRESNO ST.

LOUISIANA TECH | VS | AUBURN (-33)

• (151) LOUISIANA TECH (SU: 2-2, ATS: 3-1) at (152) AUBURN (SU: 3-0, ATS: 2-1) - Saturday, 9/27/2014 4:00 PM

GAME BREAKDOWN: Auburn rides a 10-game SU home winning streak into this one (8-2 ATS). They were a bit shaky at Kansas State in their last game, one that was just 10-7 heading into the fourth quarter. Louisiana Tech doesn't play as deliberate a style as Kansas State does, and the Bulldogs allowed 48 points to Oklahoma, the only other ranked team they've played this year. They were stunned by FCS opponent Northwestern State last week, losing 30-27 as 23-point favorites at home. Five turnovers did them in.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Louisiana Tech 19	•FRESNO ST is 7-0 OVER in the first half of the season over the L2 seasons.
	Auburn 47	•Tim DeRuyter is 9-1 UNDER after gaining 6.75+ yards/play in their previous game as coach of FRESNO ST.
		•Tim DeRuyter is 7-0 ATS versus teams averaging >=4.75 rushing yards/carry as coach of FRESNO ST.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Georgia has beaten the Vols SU each of the past four seasons, but Tennessee has covered the past two years. Last October at Tennessee, the Vols pushed Georgia to overtime despite being 13.5-point underdogs. The Bulldogs were without star RB Todd Gurley for that game; Gurley has carried for 402 yards on 9.8 YPC through three games this season, and had a combined 329 against ranked opponents Clemson and South Carolina. The Vols have held each of their three opponents to less than 150 rushing yards.

STATFOX FORECASTER:	Tennessee	16

GAME BREAKDOWN: Florida State gets QB Jameis Winston back in the lineup after serving his one-game suspension. The Seminoles are 4-1 ATS in true road games with Winston in the lineup. The Wolf Pack have covered in 11 of their past 13 against Florida State. That includes last year's matchup in Tallahassee, though that ATS win was mostly because the game was so lopsided early (35-0 after the first quarter) that the Noles benched their starters after the first half and failed to cover the 35-point spread.

UNC allowed 70 points at East Carolina last week, and gave up 29 points to FCS opponent Liberty and 509 yards of offense to San Diego State earlier this year. Clemson will start freshman QB Deshaun Watson, who has completed 70.7% of his passes and accounted for five TDs in part-time duty. He was 19-for-28 for 266 yards and had a rushing TD against FSU.

The Blue Devils had 358 rushing yards in that game, and Miami allowed 343 rushing yards in last week's 41-31 loss at Nebraska. Duke has fattened up on an easy early schedule, but have still managed an impressive 250-plus rushing yards in three of their four games this season. GAME BREAKDOWN: These teams played a classic last year, with South Carolina rallying to beat Missouri in overtime. The game ended on a short missed FG in OT. Gamecocks QB Dylan Thompson, starting in place of a banged-up Connor Shaw, was miserable in that game, failing to lead a single scoring drive over two-and-a-half quarters before Shaw replaced him. GAME BREAKDOWN: Michigan has beaten Minnesota six times in a row, SU and ATS. When the teams met a year ago, the Wolverines were coming off unimpressive wins over Akron and Connecticut. They beat Minnesota 42-13, easily covering the 18-point spread. Michigan is absolutely reeling entering the game this year, losing two of three including to Utah, 26-10 at home, last week. GAME BREAKDOWN: The teams will square off at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, home of the Cowboys. Arkansas faced one Air Raid offense already this season, beating Texas Tech on the road, 49-28, two weeks ago. They rushed for 438 yards in that win. The Aggies already have a quality win over an SEC opponent, winning at South Carolina 52-28 in the season-opener, and their offense has been close to unstoppable. A year ago, they hammered Iowa State 71-7 in Waco, outgaining the Cyclones 714-174. Iowa State has played much better after a season-opening loss to FCS school North Dakota State.
