Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The new-look Eagles have a chance to play spoiler again. They knocked off Tampa in on the final play last week, as rookie QB Nick Foles played by far his best game of the year (32-51, 381 yards, 2 TDs, rush TD, no turnovers). RB Bryce Brown was bottled up against the Bucs' excellent run defense, but he should be relatively fresh on the short week after just 14 touches. The Bengals had taken advantage of a soft spot in the schedule, but couldn't get off the field against the Cowboys last week, allowing Dallas to go II-for-I9 on third down. They've played well on the road this year (4-2 SU and ATS).

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Falcons suddenly look very shaky after getting manhandled at Carolina. They still own the best SU record in the NFC, but they're just 1-3-1 ATS over their last five. The Giants are hoping this will be a replay of their playoff matchup with the Falcons at home last January. The Giants were in Matt Ryan's face all day in that game, holding the Falcons to 247 yars in a lopsided 24-2 win. New York has clearly snapped out of their offensive slump, averaging 35.3 PPG over three games since their bye week. They've also forced seven turnovers over those three games.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Both of these teams have been overachieving. The Vikings broke a lengthy losing streak against the Bears last week despite being without WR Percy Harvin, who's out for the year. Even with teams keying on him, RB Adrian Peterson has rushed for 157.3 YPG and 7.2 YPC over the past seven games. Minnesota has averaged just 125.3 passing YPG during that span. The Rams are also getting by on defense, with their offense gaining 300 yards just once in their past four games. They've been up-and-down stopping the run all year, but they are allowing just 101.8 rush YPG and 3.4 YPC over their past four games.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Packers can wrap up the NFC North with another win over the Bears. The Packers have beaten Chicago five in a row SU and four straight ATS. The Bears will be without LB Brian Urlacher and might also have to play without QB Jay Cutler (neck), who's likely to be questionable. They did not look good in getting knocked off at Minnesota. When these teams met in Week 2, the Packers held Chicago to just 168 yards of offense and intercepted Jay Cutler four times in a 23-10 win. The Packers have had protection issues, but have managed to patch their line well enough to win back-to-back games.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Robert Griffin III's knee injury will obviously be a huge factor in this one. Last week he was replaced by Kirk Cousins, who sent the win over Baltimore to overtime (completing two passes including the tying TD, followed by running in the two-point conversion). Cleveland has won three in a row SU and four straight ATS, playing very well in the second half of the season. They've also won four of five, SU and ATS, at home. Their young offense has shown flashes over the past two weeks, going for 475 yards at Oakland and scoring 30 points in last week's win over the Chiefs.

VS

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Ravens are in trouble, losing two straight, getting beat by back-up quarterbacks both times. Now they face MVP favorite Peyton Manning. The Broncos had some issues in the red zone last week, scoring only 26 in Oakland, but they're averaging 29.8 PPG and 402.6 YPG over their past 10 games (9-1 SU, 7-3 ATS). The good news for Baltimore is that they could have LB Ray Lewis back in the lineup. But they've allowed 400-plus yards in four of their past eight games. Manning will be only the second top quarterback they've seen this year; Tom Brady and the Patriots scored 30 in Baltimore in September.

QB Cam Newton has played some of his best football during that span, throwing for 275.0 YPG and seven TDs, along with 82.0 rush YPG and three TDs, with no turnovers during that span. The Chargers continue to be a Jekyll & Hyde team, seemingly bottoming out two weeks ago only to pull off an upset in Pittsburgh last week. GAME BREAKDOWN: The Cowboys will once again try to figure things out at home. They are 3-3 SU at home but have failed to cover in any of those six games. Playing with heavy starts after the DUI that killed practice squad LB Jerry Brown and landed DT Josh Brent in prison, Dallas gutted out a win in Cincinnati last week. The Steelers are coming off a terrible home loss to San Diego, losing despite getting Ben Roethlisberger back in the lineup. While Roethlisberger was rusty, it was a lack of playmaking from the defense that did them in against the Chargers. Pittsburgh's pass rush will have to take advantage of the Cowboys' struggling o-line.

Home teams where the line is +3 to -3 - pathetic team - outscored by opponents by 10 or more points/ game. (9-34 ATS) Play = KANSAS CITY against the spread as Oakland will get the extra rest after playing Thursday night, and should have RB Darren McFadden, their best offensive player, a little healthier. The Raiders have had problems in the secondary all season, but the Chiefs could be without WR Dwayne Bowe (ribs), making their already weak passing game even worse. The Chiefs had just 299 yards of offense the last time these teams met, and are the last team the Raiders have held under 300 yards of offense.

GAME BREAKDOWN: This will be a matchup of arguably the NFL's best offense and best defense. The Niners have held their last four opponents under 300 yards of offense. They're 3-1, SU and ATS, since inserting Colin Kaepernick as their starting quarterback. Kaepernick has completed 68.9% of his passes with a 100.1 passer rating as a starter, and has added 174 rushing yards and two rush TDs. The Patriots have had defensive issues again this season, and they'll have a short week to prepare for Kaepernick. They have had issues against the NFC West, getting upset by Arizona and Seattle this season.

GAME BREAKDOWN: This might be the least appealing matchup in Monday Night Football history, but the Jets are going to be playing hard as they're still entertaining playoff hopes. They've won back-to-back games, albeit against bottom-feeders Arizona (not a cover) and Jacksonville. They scored 24 total points in those wins. The Titans, meanwhile, have crashed and burned. They're just 1-3 SU and ATS since getting OB Jake Locker back in the lineup, and Locker has posted a 60.8 passer rating with seven interceptions during Tennessee's three-game losing streak.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Utah State brings a six-game win streak to the blue turf in Boise, ID to take on an injury-riddled Toledo squad. The Rockets starting QB Terrance Owens (foot) and RB David Fluellen (ankle) both missed their last games, but are both expected to start here. Toledo dropped two of its past three contests SU and three of four ATS. The Aggies played in this same bowl last year, losing 24-23 to Ohio to extend their bowl drought to 18 years (last win in 1993). But they are 10-1-1 ATS this season with the only non-cover being a 36-point win over 37.5-point underdog Idaho.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave also knows his pigskin, finishing better than 52% in all college football games last year. Dave is heating up in NBA Best Bets, going 16-12-1 ATS (57%) since Nov. 27.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a 156-99-1 (61%) record on all picks, which included a gaudy 54-25 ATS mark (68%) on college basketball Best Bets. Gary is sizzling in NBA, going 11-3-1 ATS (79%) on Best Bets since Nov. 26 and 67% ATS (22-11-3) for the year.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for Stat-Fox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% ATS on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Scott also had a strong NFL playoff run, going 7-4 ATS (64%). Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages, going 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets. This year, he's potent in NBA too, going 58% ATS in Best Bets, and a stellar 34-18 (65%) on Totals.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on Stat-Fox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. He still flexed his NBA muscle, however, as StatFox Brian racked up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the All-Star break. Brian is starting to find his way in NBA Best Bets this year at 51% ATS (30-29-3).

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regularseason games played between Sept. 25 and Dec. 31. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4). This season, it's 60% (40-27-1).

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave also knows his pigskin, finishing better than 52% in all college football games last year, capping off his season with a 4-1 Best Bets ATS mark in the bowl games.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season. and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/ unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a gaudy 54-25 ATS (68%) mark on Best Bets. He's also been tremendous this year at 59% ATS (23-16) Best Bets.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for Stat-Fox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% against the spread on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Scott also had a strong NFL playoff run, going 7-4 ATS (64%). Not merely a one-sport pony, Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages: He racked up a whopping 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on Stat-Fox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. He also flexed his NBA muscle by racking up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the February All-Star break. He's starting to heat up in college hoops, going 9-6 ATS (60%) on Best Bets since Nov. 30.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regularseason games played between September 25 and the end of December.
