StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 13

** The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

** The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared o how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the vinners and losers.

NFL GAME BREAKDOWNS: WEEK 13

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

ATLANTA FALCONS (-3½)

• (301) NEW ORLEANS (SU: 5-6, ATS: 6-5) at (302) ATLANTA (SU: 10-1, ATS: 6-4)

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Falcons have a chance to avenge their only loss of the season, but they haven't been particularly sharp at home. Atlanta is 5-0 SU but only 2-3 ATS at home, and haven't won a game by more than six points in their own building. These teams played a very even game in New Orleans in Week 10, a 31-

27 Saints win, with the Falcons outgaining New Orleans 454-440 and each team turning it over once. Atlanta had a chance to win it late, but couldn't score in a goal-to-go situation. It was the Saints' fourth straight victory, SU and ATS, over the Falcons. They've won by a field goal in their last two trips to Atlanta.

ATLANTA

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Jaguars continue to look like a different team since going with veteran QB Chad Henne as their starter. After pushing the Texans to overtime in Houston, they scored their first home win of the season last week, over the Titans. Henne was 17-for-26 for 261 yards, 2 TDs and an INT in the win, but did take seven sacks. The Bills have been burned by their special teams of late, allowing return TDs each of the past two weeks. They would like to ride their running backs, but last week in Indy were forced to go to the air in a comeback attempt.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Lions came close to getting things turned around last week, playing one of their best games of the year but falling to the Texans in overtime while being victimized by a blown call on a Houston TD. They'll also have some extra time to prepare for rookie QB Andrew Luck, who has been much better at home than on the road (65.4 passer rating, 4 TD, 10 INTs). The Colts bounced back from a blowout loss at New England to beat Buffalo at home last week, thanks largely to another strong game from rookie slot receiver T.Y. Hilton (punt return at receiving TDs).

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Niners are 4-1 SU and ATS on the road this year, and their last three road games have been double-digit wins. QB Colin Kaepernick has added a new dimension to their offense, as opponents need to respect his running ability as they do with Robert Griffin III. Kaepernick has a 110.9 passer rating in his two starts. The Rams are coming off a road win in Arizona, taking advantage of the atrocious play of rookie QB Ryan Lindley. These teams played to a tie in San Francisco in Week 10, with the Rams outgaining San Fran 458-341. The health of Danny Amendola (foot), who had 11 catches for 102 yards in the first meeting, will be big.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Patriots have rung up 108 points over the past two weeks. They have a chance to make it five SU wins in a row over Miami, though their last meeting—Christmas Eve in New England, a 27-24 Pats win—was a close one. The Matt Mooreto-Brandon Marshall connection burned them, though neither will be involved in this year's game. The Dolphins snapped a threegame losing skid by beating Seattle at home last week, gaining an impressive 435 yards of offense against a top-notch defense. As good as New England has played offensively of late, their defense has allowed 400 yards in three straight weeks.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Both these teams enter this game with major question marks. The Jets suffered an embarrassing Thanks-giving night home loss to rival New England, turning it over five times in a 49-19 loss. They're just 2-4 SU (3-3 ATS) at home this season, and overall they've dropped four of five SU and three of four ATS. The Cardinals gave QB Ryan Lindley his first career start last week, and the rookie was a disaster, throwing four INTs including a couple of pick sixes. He'll likely get another start in this game. The Cardinals are 2-1 SU against the AFC East this year, with wins at New England and home over Miami.

Peyton Manning has a 110.2 passer rating and a 13-to-1 TD/INT ratio in his five home starts, and the running game didn't miss a beat with Willis McGahee out, as Knowshon Moreno ran for 85 yards on 20 carries at K.C. GAME BREAKDOWN: The Chargers snatched a defeat from the jaws of certain victory in losing their third in a row on Sunday (failing to stop Baltimore on a 4th-and-29 that would have ended the game). Their defense has played relatively well overall, holding three of their last five opponents under 300 yards of offense, but they continue to have lapses at all the wrong times, and the Chargers no longer have the offense to carry them. GAME BREAKDOWN: The Steelers continue to go nowhere since Ben Roethlisberger went down. They stayed close with the Rayens at home two weeks ago with Byron Leftwich under center, basically shutting down Baltimore's offense. But the offense was horrific with Leftwich sidelined and Charlie Batch starting in last week's loss to Cleveland, turning it over a eight times while gaining just 242 yards of offense. Baltimore was in the midst of another feeble offensive day until late in last week's win in San Diego. They con-verted a 4th-and-29 to force OT and stole a victory. Ten of these teams' last 12 meetings have been decided by one possession.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Browns finally got their second win over the year last week, though they needed eight Pittsburgh turn-

Raiders defense hasn't stopped anyone of late, allowing 42.3 PPG over the past four games. Their offense hasn't been able to keep up, as they've averaged just 15.7 PPG over three games without

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Cowboys have a chance to finish the season sweep of their rivals. They'll get extra rest coming off a Thanksgiving Day game, while Philly has a short week and may or may not have QB Michael Vick and RB LeSean McCoy available as they recover from concussions. The Cowboys pulled away from the Eagles in Philly in their Week 10 matchup, taking advantage after Vick went down and was replaced by rookie Nick Foles. Dallas got two defensive touchdowns and a punt return TD in the fourth quarter of a 38-23 win, with Foles turning it over twice in the fourth and having another pick six called back on a penalty.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave had a monster week, going 12-4 ATS, upping his season mark to 58% ATS (118-85-4) for the entire season. Dave has also posted a profitable 57% ATS on his Best Bets (42-32) for the season, with six straight weeks of 50% ATS or better in Best Bets.

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Garv has been red-hot in his picks lately, going 10-6 ATS this week to improve to 28-19 ATS (60%) in the past three weeks. Gary's season college Best Bets mark is also strong this season, as a 13-9 ATS run has boosted his season Best Bets to 55% (22-18).

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for Stat-Fox and Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a two-year college football run in which his Best Bets success rate was 56%. Scott has found his groove in the past five weeks, going 9-6 ATS (60%) in Best Bets games not included in the above grid of marguee games. Last week he focused heavily on the grid games, going 11-5 ATS overall and 2-1 ATS in Best Bets. He correctly picked a pair of road 'dogs to stay close, with Oklahoma State losing by 3 and South Carolina winning outright.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 ATS record (62%) on college basketball Best Bet picks. Brian has been in a zone with Best Bets all year, but has been especially hot lately with a superb 16-8-1 ATS mark (67%) in his past seven weeks. That makes Brian 58% (26-19-1 ATS) on Best Bets for the season.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful longterm handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regularseason games played between September 25 and the end of the calendar year. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS.

Statfox College Football Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 14

** The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers. GAME BREAKDOWN: The winner of this contest wins the Big East and could go to a BCS bowl. Louisville holds a slight 4-3 (SU and ATS) advantage over Rutgers in Big East play, winning two straight meetings including a 40-13 rout in its last trip to New Jersey in 2010. Both starting quarterbacks -- Teddy Bridgewater (wrist/ankle) and Gary Nova (neck) -- were injured in bad losses last week when the Cardinals fell at home to 10-point underdog UConn and the Knights got smoked 27-6 at Pittsburgh. Louisville is 1-3 ATS on the road.

GAME BREAKDOWN: This is an unlikely Pac-12 title game. Stanford has won four straight (SU and ATS) in this series, including last week's 35-17 road win for a 115-36 advantage in the past three matchups. UCLA entered last Saturday with 207 rushing YPG, but the Cardinal outrushed them 221 to 73 behind Stepfan Taylor's 142 yards and 2 TD. Stanford leads the nation in run defense (71 YPG), sacks (53) and TFL (111), big reasons why it has won six straight games SU and six of seven ATS. UCLA is 4-1 SU on the road, scoring 39.4 PPG.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave went 8-6 ATS overall last week in the featured NBA games on Tuesday and Wednesday, and is nailing a perfect 2-0 ATS on Sunday NBA Best Bets so far this season.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a 156-99-1 (61%) record on all picks, which included a gaudy 54-25 record against the spread (68%) on college basketball Best Bets. Gary is off to a strong start, as his current 7-3 ATS Best Bets run brings him to a cool 60% ATS this season.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for Stat-Fox, Platinum Sheet and the Edge Football Preview Guide, and is coming off a 2011 college football season in which he was 53% ATS on Platinum Sheet Best Bets. That followed a 2010 season in which his college football Best Bets success rate was 59%. Scott also had a strong NFL playoff run, going 7-4 ATS (64%). Scott had a 2011-12 college basketball regular season for the ages, going 56-23 ATS record (71%) on Best Bets. This year, he's potent in NBA too, going 60% ATS in Best Bets, and a stellar 29-9 (76%) on NBA Totals. StatFox Brian

A featured writer on Stat-Fox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board in 2010. His most recent success earlier this calendar year was a 49-30 record (62%) against the spread on college basketball Best Bet picks. He still flexed his NBA muscle, however, as StatFox Brian racked up a 31-16 ATS record (66%) on NBA Best Bets prior to the All-Star break. Brian is starting to thrive in NBA Best Bets this year, sitting at 52.4% ATS (22-20-3).

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-field advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway, as evident by an ATS success rate of 61% (123-79-6) on all 2011 NFL regularseason games played between Sept. 25 and Dec. 31. In the last NBA season, the Forecaster caught fire for a 200-game stretch between December and April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4). This season, it's 59% (31-22-1).

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 in the NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the NBA postseason. Dave has been not been bashful with his college Best Bets earlyon this season, going 17-10 ATS (63%) in the past week to bring his season Best Bets total to 56% ATS (29-23).

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Gary also has a knack for college over/ unders, finishing the bowl season 4-1 in his Best Bet totals. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a gaudy 54-25 ATS (68%) mark on Best Bets. He's also been strong this season at 57% ATS (13-10) Best Bets.
