StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 12

** The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

** The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two teams mired in two-game losing skids meet Monday night. San Francisco has generated just 173.5 total YPG in its past two losses while Washington has 430 total YPG in its past two defeats, which both came on the road. The 49ers could get top WR Michael Crabtree (Achilles) back for this game, while the Redskins could be missing two starters, WR Leonard Hankerson (knee) and TE Jordan Reed (concussion). This matchup pits two of the top five rushing offenses in the NFL with Washington (155 rushing YPG) piling up 188 rushing YPG since Oct. 1. San Francisco dominated the ground (138 to 52) when these teams last met in 2011 in the nation's capital, a 19-11 Niners win.

** The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

Statfox College Football Outplay Factor Rating Lines - Week 13

** The Outplay Factor Ratings made famous by StatFox are a great Team Strength Indicator as they provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying (+ value) or being outplayed by (- value) their opponents. They are determined by a complicated formula that takes into account a team's points for/against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared. Here are the StatFox Team Outplay Factor Ratings and the corresponding game lines derived from them. Note that the point edge between the Outplay Factor Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Last season, Kansas State snapped a five-game losing streak against the Sooners with a 24-19 win in Norman, the Wildcats' first win over OU since 2003. They held the normally powerful OU offense to 386 yards in that game and forced three turnovers. Oklahoma has had some issues on the road this year, failing to cover in its last three away from home. They did rebound from their blowout loss to Baylor with a 48-10 win over Iowa State last week. Kansas State has won four in a row SU (3-1 ATS).

GAME BREAKDOWN: Ohio State moved to 22-0 SU under Urban Meyer with last week's win at Illinois, but they failed to cover for the second time in four games. The Buckeyes allowed 35 points to the Illini to prevent the cover, though they had no problem on the other side of the ball, where they've scored 179 points over the last three games. Indiana had been moving the ball well all season before last week, when they lost 51-3 at Wisconsin. The Hoosiers have dropped four of five, SU and ATS, allowing 617.0 YPG and 46.6 PPG.

GAME BREAKDOWN: Michigan snapped a three-game losing streak against lowa last November, when the Wolverines rolled up 513 yards of offense in a 42-17 win in Ann Arbor. QB Devin Gardner, who has struggled of late, went 18-for-23 for 314 yards along with three passing TDs and three rushing TDs in that win. The Wolverines needed a miracle last-second field goal to force overtime in last week's win at Northwestern. They're 1-3 ATS on the road this year. The Hawkeyes are coming off a 38-14 win at hapless Purdue.

GAME BREAKDOWN: BYU gave a very good Notre Dame team a run in South Bend last year. The Cougars led 14-10 going into the fourth quarter before the Irish rallied for a 17-14 win as a double-digit favorite. QB Tommy Rees was just 7-for-16 for 117 yards, but the Notre Dame ground game rolled up 270 yards. BYU has failed to cover in its last two on the road, a narrow win at Houston and a loss at Wisconsin. The Irish have failed to cover their last two (a 38-34 win over Navy and a loss at Pitt) due to multiple turnovers in both games.

GAME BREAKDOWN: This rivalry doesn't figure to be much of a game, though Cal has managed to cover in five of its last six trips to Stanford. The Golden Bears enter on a ninegame SU losing streak, and after back-to-back covers they've lost their last two ATS (a 62-28 home loss to USC and a 41-24 loss at Colorado). Cal has allowed at least 30 points in every game this year. Stanford lost at USC last week, and the Cardinal has failed to score 30 points in five straight games. They held Cal to 217 yards in a 21-3 win at Berkeley in 2012.
