NFL POWER RATINGS

The StatFox Power Ratings are generated by a formula that weighs several key factors, including point margins, strength of schedule and team stats. Additionally, our exclusive home-field advantage points are built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. The ratings are not as reactive as those found elsewhere, and thus have proven to be a great long-term handicapping tool.

NFL OUTPLAY FACTOR RATINGS

StatFox's renowned Outplay Factor Ratings have proven over the years to be an excellent indicator of team strength: They provide a quantitative measure of how teams are outplaying—or being outplayed by—their opponents. They are determined by a sophisticated formula that takes into account a team's points for and points against as compared to how their previous opponents have fared.

GAME BREAKDOWN: This is a rematch of last year's AFC Wild Card matchup in which the Texans played back-up QB T.J. Yates but still cruised to a 31-10 victory. This year the Bengals played only four games against teams that made the playoffs, going 2-2 SU and ATS. That included last week's narrow home win against a Ravens team that emptied its bench. They did win four straight on the road to finish the year, three over bottom-feeders and one a mistake-filled gift at Pittsburgh. Houston slumped down the stretch, but did go 6-2 SU and 5-3 ATS at home, their two SU losses coming to NFC playoff teams in Green Bay and Minnesota.

GAME BREAKDOWN: The Colts finished out the year winning nine of 11, SU and ATS, including last week's impressive home win that knocked the Texans out of the AFC's top spot. They were not particularly strong on the road this year though, where they went 4-4 SU and ATS but 0-3 against teams that finished 2012 with a winning record. Baltimore was 6-2 SU but only 3-5 ATS at home this year. They had offensive issues all season and this will be just the fourth game as offensive coordinator for Jim Caldwell. After a strong showing against the Giants, they opted against using their starters in the regular season finale.

Going to be hard for me to write this game review as I am not fan of the "Golden Domers," but most signs point to a Notre Dame cover and moneyline win. I look at six key factors in picking Bowl games: quarterback, defense, motivation, home field, stud factor, opponent strength and SEC factor. Both teams get receive equal votes of three when using the key factors mentioned, but Notre Dame has one this year that The Crimson Tide don't, and that is the motivation of battling for the undefeated season. Notre Dame's defensive unit will keep this game tight and I expect Manti Te'o to pick up an Eddie Lacy fumble and return it for a touchdown for the straight-up win.

I've never been a big fan of Nick Saban in bowl games. His Alabama teams were badly unprepared and outcoached in a bowl loss to Utah a few years back, and played an absurdly close BCS title game against a severely undermanned Texas team three years ago. Alabama has more talent, but I'll take Brian Kelly in the chess match. This is essentially a matchup of two elite defenses. There's talent on offense-Notre Dame has some strong run-and-catch skill position threats, and the Tide has a backfield full of studs. But both sides are likely to play it safe on offense, the Irish because of their youth under center, and Bama because of QB AJ McCarron's shakiness in big games this year.

StatFox Scott

The key matchup to me in this game is going to be Alabama's defense against Notre Dame's offense-I simply don't see how the Fighting Irish are going to be able to move the football consistently against this Alabama defense. Only three times all season has Notre Dame surpassed 30 points, against Navy, Miami and Wake Forest. Alabama, meanwhile, has allowed more than 14 points only three times all season, and they were all against quality opponents: 17 to LSU, 24 to Texas A&M and 28 to Georgia. The Tide also has experience having won this game last season-that'll be a big edge against a team that's starting a freshman at quarterback.

StatFox Brian

Last year I predicted Alabama would win a 13-9 game over LSU because of its defense. I don't think this Tide's defense is nearly as talented as last year's crew, but they're still plenty good enough to shut down a lackluster Notre Dame offense that ranks tied for 76th in the nation in scoring (26.8 PPG), while Alabama places 15th at 38.5 PPG. Everett Golson just doesn't have the arm to bring his team back from a deficit against a quality opponent with a 49.6% comp. pct., 2 TD and 2 INT combined against USC. Oklahoma, Stanford. Michigan and Michigan State. However, I also think Notre Dame's defense is outstanding and it will keep this game close.

StatFox Dave

StatFox Dave is one of the original four founders of StatFox and over the years has been renowned for his handicapping prowess in all sports. Anyone who signed up for our NBA postseason Best Bets certainly knows that to be true, as Dave racked up a 59% success rate on all picks (including a perfect 5-0 ATS in the 2012 NBA Finals) and an astounding 66% success rate on Best Bets during the 2012 NBA postseason. Dave is red-hot this year too, as he's 9-3 ATS (75%) in NBA Best Bets since Dec. 22, and has gone 23-12 ATS (66%) in college hoops Best Bets since Dec. 9.

StatFox Gary

StatFox Gary joined the StatFox and the Platinum Sheet staff prior to the 2010 football season, and subscribers were certainly happy he did: He proceeded to post a 55% success rate on NFL Best Bets in his "rookie" season. Football isn't the only sport at which Gary excels, as he finished the 2011-12 college basketball regular season with a 156-99-1 (61%) record on all picks, which included a gaudy 54-25 record against the spread (68%) on college basketball Best Bets. Gary is 12-3 ATS in CBB Bets Bets since Dec. 19, and also has a 5-2-1 ATS run in NBA Best Bets.

StatFox Scott

StatFox Scott serves as Managing Editor for StatFox and The Platinum Sheet and is coming off a 2011-12 college basketball season for the ages: He racked up a 156-99-1 (61%) record on featured matchups with a whopping 56-23 record against the spread (71%) on Best Bets during the regular season. He closed the season with a 39-11 record over his final 50 Best Bet picks for a mindboggling 78% success rate from December 23 through early March. Scott is on a 7-3 ATS run in NBA Best Bets, and is 11-6-1 ATS (65%) since Dec. 14 in college hoops Best Bets.

StatFox Brian

A featured writer on both StatFox.com and for Platinum Sheet, StatFox Brian has yet to suffer a losing season of Platinum Sheet Best Bets in either college football, NFL, college basketball or NBA since coming on board during the summer of 2010-that's an astouding 10 straight seasons without a losing mark. He compiled a 153-92-1 (60%) record on featured matchups during the 2011-12 college hoops regular season with a 49-30 ATS record (62%) on college basketball Best Bet picks. Since Dec. 23, Brian is 8-2 ATS in NBA Best Bets and 7-3 in NBA Totals.

StatFox Forecaster

By weighing several key factors, including recent statistical averages, schedule strength and home-court advantage, the StatFox Forecaster has proven to be an extremely successful long-term handicapping tool. It's most accurate once a season is underway: After a mediocre start to last NBA season, the StatFox Forecaster caught fire for a hefty 200-game stretch between late December and early April, nailing better than 58% ATS (114-82-4). The Forecaster went 9-7 ATS (56.3%) in featured matchups for college basketball last week.
