Welcome to the 10th annual edition of the StatFox Edge College Football Bowl Game Guide. It has long been our belief that this should be the most rewarding time of the college football season being that we're given weeks to prepare for each game as opposed to the five or six days between games throughout the regular season. What we've aimed to do with this publication is once again arm you with all of the trends, background, insight and statistics so that you can maximize your opportunities.

This year's Bowl Guide includes Power Ratings, Outplay Factor Ratings, top Stat Differentials and more of the useful tools that readers of StatFox.com, FoxSheets.com and our weekly Platinum Sheet publication have come to rely on. Our 40-page section of bowl-by-bowl matchups is where we thoroughly analyze each game. And, of course, we provide picks from our StatFox Forecaster, which uses proprietary algorithms to generate remarkably reliable predictions year-in and year-out. Check out our Web sites, StatFox.com and FoxSheets.com, throughout the bowl season, as we'll be updating news and developments to ensure you have the up-to-date information you need.

Now go get 'em!

BOWL GAME POWER RATINGS

The StatFox Power Ratings are generated by a formula that weighs several key factors, including point margins, strength of schedule and team stats. The ratings are not as reactive as those found elsewhere, and thus have proven to be a great handicapping tool. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN

New Mexico will play in its first bowl since 2007 when it hosts Arizona, which hasn't won a game in regulation since Oct. 17. These schools faced two common opponents this year (Nevada and Arizona St.) with the Wildcats scoring 40.5 PPG against the pair and the Lobos managing only 13.5 PPG in those two contests. But this season, Arizona allows 40.8 PPG away from home and New Mexico is 5-2 SU with 33.6 PPG at University Stadium. The Wildcats may be without top QB Anu Solomon (18 TD, 4 INT) who suffered a concussion Nov. 14, but superstar LB Scooby Wright (foot) should play.

GAME BREAKDOWN

"Holy War" rivals play for state bragging rights when surging BYU meets slumping Utah in Las Vegas. The Cougars are 7-1 SU (5-3 ATS) since October 1, while the Utes are 1-5 ATS (3-3 SU) in the past six contests. These schools met every year from 1945 to 2013 but did not square off last season. Utah has won nine of the past 12 meetings including four in a row, but BYU usually keeps the score close, as seven of the past nine meetings have been decided by a touchdown or less. The Utes will be without star RB Devontae Booker (knee), who has rushed for 1,261 yards and 11 TD this season.

Appalachian State will make its first-ever bowl appearance when it takes on Ohio in the little-known Camellia Bowl in Montgomery, AL. The Mountaineers flourished in their second FBS season with 10 wins and the lone defeats coming to unbeaten Clemson and Sun Belt champion Arkansas State. The Bobcats are riding a three-game win streak including a 26-21 upset at double-digit favorite Northern Illinois, and have much more postseason experience with this being their sixth bowl trip in the past seven years. ASU will constantly feed RB Marcus Cox who has 1,261 rushing yards and 8 TD this year.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Georgia State will play in its first-ever bowl game when it travels to Orlando to tangle with San Jose State, which hasn't lost a bowl game since 1987. The Panthers were 1-23 in their first two FBS seasons, but finished the 2015 campaign with four straight wins (SU and ATS) all by double-digits. The Spartans are one of three 5-7 teams to go bowling this season, but they failed to win consecutive games all year. Georgia State QB Nick Arbuckle averages 347 passing YPG with 26 TD, while SJSU is better on the ground (182 rush YPG) thanks mostly to RB Tyler Ervin (1,469 rush yds, 13 TD).

GAME BREAKDOWN

A pair of high-powered offenses tries to cap off the season in style when Arkansas State and Louisiana Tech collide in New Orleans. QB Fredi Knighten has propelled the Red Wolves to 48.6 PPG during their current eight-game win streak (6-2 ATS) while QB Jeff Driskel has led the Bulldogs to 36.7 PPG and a 7-2 SU (4-5 ATS) mark in their past nine games. But Louisiana Tech is coming off a humiliating 58-24 loss to Southern Miss when it turned the ball over seven times. The giveaways could continue against an Arkansas State team that has forced 27 turnovers in the past eight contests.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two schools look to remain red-hot in Miami when Western Kentucky, winners of five straight SU, faces South Florida, which has won four in a row (SU and ATS). Both of these high-powered offenses are averaging more than 50 PPG in the past three contests. The Bulls are led by RB Marlon Mack (1,273 rush yds) and head coach Willie Taggart who was the Hilltoppers head man for three years before taking the USF job in 2013. But WKU's QB Brandon Doughty has been better than Taggart could have imagined, throwing for a hefty 9,424 yards, 94 TD and 17 INT over the past two seasons.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Akron seeks its first ever bowl win when it collides with Utah State on the blue turf in Boise. The Zips lost their only bowl appearance in the 2005 Motor City Bowl by a 38-31 score to Memphis and are matched up with an Aggies team that has three bowl wins in the past three years. But while Terry Bowden's Akron squad is currently playing great football with four straight victories (SU and ATS), Matt Wells and his Utah State team has four consecutive ATS losses (1-3 SU). However, Aggies QB Chuckie Keeton (61 career TD passes) is finally healthy, and he will try to close out his career in style.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Toledo and Temple, two teams hoping to bounce back from disappointing results, will escape the cold weather and square off in Boca Raton, FL. The Rockets missed out on a chance to play in the MAC title game with a 35-30 home loss to Western Michigan while the Owls were beaten 24-13 by Houston in the AAC championship. These schools have met six times since 1998, and all six contests have been decided by 12 or more points with Toledo as the big winner in five of these matchups. Rockets head coach Matt Campbell left for Iowa State, and the team promoted OC Jason Candle.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two eight-win teams missing No. 1 quarterbacks will meet in San Diego when Boise State takes on Northern Illinois. The Broncos have been without QB Ryan Finley (ankle) for most of the year, while Huskies QB Drew Hare ruptured his Achilles tendon in November. While Boise has still piled up 37.7 PPG this year, including 40.3 PPG away from home, NIU has a mere 35 points and six turnovers during a current two-game losing skid. The Huskies have lost all three bowls under Rod Carey, while the Broncos are 5-1 in their past six bowls, including Bryan Harsin's Fiesta Bowl win last season.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Georgia Southern hopes to fix its suddenly sagging defense before it faces Bowling Green and star QB Matt Johnson two days before Christmas. The Eagles allowed 346 passing yards in a stunning 34-7 loss to 20.5-point underdog Georgia State on Dec. 5 and are now tasked with stopping Johnson, who leads the nation with 4,700 passing yards and ranks second with 43 passing TD. But Georgia Southern leads FBS with 356 rushing YPG and its 33:26 average time of possession ranks ninth in the nation. The Falcons will not have head coach Dino Babers, who left for Syracuse.

GAME BREAKDOWN

San Diego State seeks its 10th straight victory when it travels to Hawaii on Christmas Eve to face the high-powered Cincinnati offense. The Aztecs won't have QB Maxwell Smith (knee), but they have been winning with a defense limiting the past nine opponents to a mere 12.7 PPG. But the Bearcats have 36.1 PPG and 559 total YPG this season and QB Gunner Kiel has more than twice as many TD passes (19) as sacks taken (eight). San Diego State head coach Rocky Long is just 2-7 in his bowl career, while Cincinnati's Tommy Tuberville is 7-5 in his career, including six wins in his past nine bowls.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Indiana and Duke, a pair of high-powered offenses (and suspect defenses), will go head-to-head in Yankee Stadium. The Hoosiers are averaging 36.2 PPG this season, including 47.3 PPG in the past three games, but they also allow 37.1 PPG. The Blue Devils have scored 30.5 PPG and given up 24.1 PPG in 2015, but both of those numbers climb for non-home games (36.3 PPG, 30.3 PPG) where they are 4-2 (SU and ATS) this year. Indiana might be without 1,213-yard rusher Jordan Howard (knee), which could prompt QB Nate Sudfeld (3,184 pass yds, 24 TD, 5 INT) to throw 50 times.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Five-win Nebraska tries to avoid an eighth loss when it faces a UCLA squad playing in its home state. Although the Cornhuskers have no business being in their 45th bowl in 47 seasons, they haven't lost by more than 10 points all season with four defeats coming by a field goal or less. The Bruins are appearing in their 12th bowl in the past 14 years and have displayed a roller-coaster defense over the past five games in allowing 31, 0, 31, 9 and 40 points. But they have heady freshman QB Josh Rosen under center who has thrown for 220+ yards in nine straight games with 15 TD and just 5 INT.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Navy QB Keenan Reynolds looks to close out his brilliant career in style with a virtual home game against Pittsburgh. The Panthers wanted a more lucrative bowl, but their 8-4 regular season ended with a home loss to 7-point underdog Miami. The Midshipmen haven't beaten a great team this season, but Reynolds has continued to thrive in the triple option with 1,093 rushing yards and 19 TD, giving him an eye-popping 83 rushing touchdowns in his career. Pittsburgh is making an eighth straight bowl appearance (3-4 record) while Navy is playing in its 12th bowl in 13 years (5-6 record).

GAME BREAKDOWN

Central Michigan tries to secure its sixth win in seven games in nearby Detroit against struggling Minnesota. The Chippewas are playing in their seventh bowl in 10 years due largely to the play of QB Cooper Rush, who has thrown for 322 YPG, 17 TD and only 6 INT over the past seven games. Meanwhile, the 5-7 Golden Gophers have a signal caller in QB Mitch Leidner who has managed only 7 TD and 6 INT over the past six contests, five of which ended in defeat. Since its victory in the 2004 Music City Bowl, Minnesota has lost seven straight postseason games.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Slumping Baylor tries to forget a disappointing final month of the season when it matches up with an excellent North Carolina team in Orlando. The Bears started the season 8-0, but injuries to all three of their quarterbacks have left their once-potent offense in shambles. The Tar Heels saw their 11-game win streak come to an end in the ACC Championship Game to Clemson, but still have a chance to win a school record 12th game of the season in what is their seventh bowl appearance in the past eight seasons. Baylor is playing in its sixth straight bowl after 15 years without a postseason game.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two Mountain West teams, Nevada and Colorado State, will collide in the inaugural Arizona Bowl. These schools have met six times since 2005 with only one of the games decided by less than two touchdowns. The close contest occurred last year when the Rams nearly blew a 31-3 second-half lead in a 31-24 win. The star of that game was CSU WR Rashard Higgins, who caught 10 passes for 194 yards and 2 TD. Higgins has been a big part of his team's current four-game win streak with 315 receiving yards, while Nevada relies on a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in RBs James Butler and Don Jackson.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two of the most explosive players in college football will be on display in Houston when RB Leonard Fournette leads LSU into battle against QB Patrick Mahomes and Texas Tech. Fournette sits atop FBS with 158 rushing YPG while Mahomes ranks first in the nation in total offense (397 total YPG). The Tigers are a perfect 8-0 when they rush for 200+ yards, but 0-3 when they fall below that mark. Despite Mahomes' throwing acumen, the Red Raiders have shown great balance with at least 160 rushing yards in 11 of 12 games this year. But LSU gives up 4.0 yards per carry while TTU allows 6.0 YPC.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two teams of Tigers will claw at one another in Birmingham when Memphis seeks its 10th win against a 6-6 Auburn club. Memphis opened the season with eight straight victories, but allowed 111 points during a three-game losing skid before beating up SMU 63-0 in the regular-season finale. Auburn has been up and down in the win column all season and is tied for the fewest ATS victories in FBS at 2-9-1 ATS. This will likely be the final game for Memphis junior QB Paxton Lynch, who is projected as a high draft pick this spring. Lynch threw 7 TD last game to give him 28 TD and only 3 INT this season.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two teams looking to avoid a losing skid will meet in a Charlotte location that benefits NC State much more than Mississippi State. The Wolfpack have alternated losses and wins in each of their past seven contests while the Bulldogs' win-loss pattern began in November. Both schools' offenses are led by heady senior QBs in Jacoby Brissett (19 TD, 4 INT for NCSU) and Dak Prescott (25 TD, 4 INT for MSU), whose teams score 33.7 PPG and 33.0 PPG. Also this year, the defenses have allowed 23.7 PPG (NCSU) and 22.8 PPG (MSU), including a hefty 36.0 PPG and 39.7 PPG over the past three games.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Louisville tries to remain hot when it faces slumping Texas A&M in Nashville. The Cardinals opened the year 0-3 but have won seven of their past nine games, while the Aggies began 5-0 before a 3-4 SU slide (1-6 ATS) in their past seven contests. Louisville, which is playing in its sixth straight bowl, leans heavily on dual-threat freshman QB Lamar Jackson, who is coming off a career-high 186 rushing yards. For Texas A&M to win its fifth straight bowl in five years, the team needs to protect the football. The Aggies have 13 giveaways in their four losses, with at least three turnovers each game.

GAME BREAKDOWN

USC gets a virtual home game when it faces Wisconsin for the first time since 1966 in sunny San Diego. The Trojans will play this game with a new defensive coaching staff, but they still have plenty of offense with QB Cody Kessler (28 TD, 6 INT) and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (1,389 rec yds, 10 TD). The Badgers don't have their usual punishing ground game (148 rush YPG on 3.9 YPC), but they still hold the football for an average of 33:34 (8th in FBS), including 35:00 in non-home games. Wisconsin also has a suffocating defense allowing a mere 13.1 PPG on 267 YPG, while USC allows 401 total YPG.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Houston is expected to get top RB Kenneth Farrow (ankle) back after a two-game absence when it faces Florida State in Atlanta. Farrow (949 rush yds, 12 TD) and dual-threat QB Greg Ward Jr. (3,631 total yds, 35 TD) are the unquestioned leaders of this 12-win Cougars squad. Seminoles RB Dalvin Cook (1,658 rush yds, 18 TD) has totaled 1,282 yards and 13 touchdowns over the past seven games but will be up against a fierce Houston run defense allowing a mere 116 YPG on 3.3 YPC. Florida State enters this contest with three straight SU victories and five consecutive ATS wins.

GAME BREAKDOWN

SEC champion Alabama looks for its 11th straight win and fourth national title game berth in the past seven years when it faces Big Ten champ Michigan State on New Year's Eve. The Tide hold a +21.7 PPG margin during their long win streak with Tennessee being the only team to come within 13 points of them. The Spartans are 5-1-1 ATS in the past seven games and their lone SU loss this season was by one point on a last-minute TD pass by Nebraska. These schools last met in the 2011 Capital One Bowl when Alabama held a rushing advantage of 275 to minus-48 yards in an easy 49-7 victory.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Undefeated Clemson takes on the hottest team in college football in the first national semifinal when it clashes with Oklahoma. Oklahoma hopes to avenge last season's 40-6 loss to Clemson in the Russell Athletic Bowl, and both teams have much better signal callers now with Tigers QB Deshaun Watson (30 TD, 11 INT) and Sooners QB Baker Mayfield (35 TD, 5 INT).

GAME BREAKDOWN

Jim Harbaugh looks to wrap up his first season in Ann Arbor with 10 victories when his team plays a struggling Florida offense. Since Nov. 1, the Gators have scored only 14.0 PPG on 271 total YPG, and are facing a Wolverines defense that has held five teams to seven points or less this year. On the other side of the ball, Michigan's offense has scored 34.5 PPG in the past four contests and QB Jake Rudock (17 TD, 9 INT) should be nearly 100 percent healed from his shoulder injury by New Year's Day. Florida has been a great postseason bet recently though, going 7-2 SU in the past nine bowl games.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two storied programs meet for the first time in 10 years when Notre Dame takes on Ohio State. The Fighting Irish and the Buckeyes will now play each other in the Fiesta Bowl for the second straight time, having last met in Arizona in 2006, which was a 34-20 OSU win. Notre Dame hopes to have RB C.J. Prosise (ankle) back on the field, but may not find many holes against an Ohio State team that has outrushed opponents by a ridiculous 313 to 97 YPG margin on the road this year. A big part of that dominance is Ezekiel Elliott (1,672 rush yds, 19 TD) who has over 100 rushing yards in all 11 wins.

GAME BREAKDOWN

lowa will try to add to its school record 12 victories when it faces Pac-12 champion Stanford in Pasadena. The Hawkeyes, who haven't won a bowl game since 2010 and haven't won a Rose Bowl since 1958, are facing a Cardinal team appearing in its 14th Rose Bowl (6-6-1 SU record). Iowa might not have top RB Jordan Canzeri (ankle) but a bigger worry is how to stop Stanford RB Christian McCaffrey, who set a school record with 461 all-purpose yards versus USC. The Hawkeyes have 25 takeaways in the past 11 games, but the Cardinal haven't committed a turnover in any of their three straight victories.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Explosive Oklahoma State (41.2 PPG) will make its 10th straight bowl appearance (6-3 record) against an equally potent Ole Miss club (40.2 PPG) that is 9-2 in bowl games since 1997. Two of those Rebels wins were against the Cowboys in the 2004 and 2010 Cotton Bowls by scores of 31-28 and 21-7. Oklahoma State produced double-digit wins for the fourth time in six seasons by throwing the football (357 passing YPG) and going 4-0 in games decided by a touchdown or less. Ole Miss is seeking a school-record-tying 10th win on the arm of QB Chad Kelly (3,740 pass yds, 27 TD, 12 INT).

GAME BREAKDOWN

Surging Georgia brings a four-game win streak (3-1 ATS) to Jacksonville to face a slumping Penn State club with three straight defeats (SU and ATS). The Bulldogs haven't scored 30 points since early October, but have held opponents to a mere 12.2 PPG in the past six contests. In this same time period, the once-fierce Nittany Lions defense has surrendered 29.0 PPG. Georgia lost top RB Nick Chubb (knee) midseason but still remains a run-first offense (194 YPG, 5.2 YPC). PSU QB Christian Hackenberg has a weak 53% completion rate this year, but has 15 TD and 3 INT over the past nine games.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Two schools peaking at the right time will collide when Kansas State, winners of three straight, plays an Arkansas squad that is 5-1 in the past six contests. Both schools have horrible passing defenses allowing more than 280 YPG and 8 YPA, and both passing offenses have averaged more than 200 passing YPG in the past four contests. The Wildcats have scored 35.7 PPG during their win streak, but might not be able to stop the Razorbacks, who beat defenses both through the air with QB Brandon Allen (260 pass YPG, 29 TD) and on the ground with RB Alex Collins (116 rush YPG, 17 TD).

GAME BREAKDOWN

Arizona State will try to avoid a losing season when it hosts West Virginia in Chase Field, 11 miles from its Tempe campus. The Sun Devils had preseason expectations to play in a greater January bowl, but have allowed 32.7 PPG this season, and a hefty 559 total YPG over the past three contests. The Mountaineers have surrendered 34.0 PPG and 452 total YPG away from home, where they are 1-4 (SU and ATS). But in the past three games, they have held opponents to 10.0 PPG and 270 total YPG. ASU prefers to throw the football (289 YPG), while WVU has great balance (235 rush YPG, 228 pass YPG).
